

2nd ANNUAL

AFRICAN POPULAR CULTURES

WORKSHOP

New Programme

25 & 26 March 2013

School of English - University of Sussex

Monday 25 March

2 - 6pm in Arundel 230

Nollywood Workshop: An afternoon of discussions, screenings and activities with refreshments served!

Led by Phoenix Fry, film programmer, events manager, graphic artist and lecturer at the University of the Arts.

Tuesday 26 March

11am - 1pm in Fulton 211

African Literature Masterclass:

Swahili Popular Literature and Ghanaian Popular Music

led by Dr. Uta Reuster-Jahn (University of Hamburg) and Prof. Jesse Weaver Shipley (Haverford College)

Tuesday 26 March

2pm - 6pm in Arts C233

*'Anti Virus': The Revolt of Independent Bongo Flava Music
Entrepreneurs Against a 'Media Mogul' in Tanzania, 2010-2012*
Dr. Uta Reuster-Jahn

Do Nollywood Films Matter?
Prof. Onookome Okome (TBC)

'Thank God We're Not a Nigerians': Digital Circulation and Language-Use in Ghanaian Popular Music
Prof. Jesse Weaver Shipley

6 pm Wine Reception Arts B274 - English Social Space