

Geography Seminars – Spring Term 2020

Wednesdays, 13:00-15:00, Arts C 333

Geography seminars are fortnightly, starting in the first week of term. There will be tea, coffee and cake. Please mark these in your diary and come be part of a supportive research environment!

Week 1: 29th January: Leonie Ansems de Vries (Kings College London) (co-hosted by IR and SCMR)

Politics of Exhaustion: struggles over (non-)movement in borderland Europe

Week 3: 12th February: Cath Senker (Royal Literary Fund Consultant Fellow, Sussex)

Stranded in the six-day war

Week 5: 26th February: Sneha Krishnan (University of Oxford)

Re-orienting the Intimate: Religious Conversion and Geopolitics in the time of 'Love Jihad'

Week 7: 11th March: Geography PhD Students Research Outline Presentations (Sussex)

Various titles – please come and support out students as they go through this important stage in their research career.

Week 9: 25th March: tbc (most likely an internal Sussex geography speaker).

n.b. as we are having these seminars fortnightly, the alternating week will be the Sussex Centre for Migration Research seminars, and we will be co-hosting with them speakers such as Naaz Rashid, Corinne Squire, Aura Lounasmaa, Mohammed Omar Abdulhafedh and Amanda Hammar (also co-hosted by the Sussex Africa Centre). Please see the SCMR and SAC seminar schedules for further details.
