

International Relations undergraduate theses

These final year dissertations are available for reference only from the Global Studies Resource Centre, Arts C175. All scored at least 70%

Big data and the public sphere: exploring the implications of 'datafication' in the US	147318
Colonial legacies in education and conflict: Sudan	165165
Detrimental consequences of enforcement mandates' disregard for the 'Bedrock' principle of UN Peacekeeping Operations for the fulfilment of mission mandates and the future of peacekeeping	166060
Does economic globalisation cause peace or conflict? A new approach and the case of the USA 1991-2016	147225
Guilty Feminist? Critical analysis of Sweden's foreign policy	165177
Mediterranean world and its challenges: rediscovering identity in the mare omnium	169460
Reforming the sexual and gender-based violence narrative in DRC: a feminist political economic analysis	147285
Rethinking the notion of soft power: Chinese sports policy from 1949-2017	147098
Role of music in the dissolution of Yugoslavia and its uses under Tudman and Milosevic	147370
Severe civic disturbances :renting, resistance and activist culture	131626
The 'Other' in 'new terrorism' and popular culture: the politics of the post 9/11 world	147125
Theology of violence in US foreign policy under the presidencies of Reagan, Bush and Obama	147350
To keep a corpse: power over death in the contemporary Israel-Palestine context.	147169