

Sussex Centre for Migration Research

Migration Seminar Series, Wednesdays, 3.30-5pm, Room: PEV1-1B3 (Pevensey Building) - unless stated otherwise

2nd October - Prof. Bridget Anderson (Director of Migration Mobilities at University of Bristol): De-exceptionalising the Domestic: methodological de-nationalism and domestic labour. 1-3pm, Arts C333. Co-hosted with Geography Research Seminars and Ethnicity, Race and Diverse Societies Research Network)

9th October - Dr. Mastoureh Fathi (University College Cork): Relational Capital and Pedagogy: Migrant women's meaning-making of 'home' through art practice.

16th October Dr. Ben Hudson (University of Lincoln): Migration in the Mediterranean: Exposing the limits of vulnerability at the European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR)

23rd October Dr. Fiona Barker (Victoria University of Wellington): Whose representatives? Strategies and philosophies of ethnic diversification in New Zealand's political system

28th October – 12 Midday to 1.30pm (room tba) Prof. Andrew Geddes (Director of Migration Policy Centre at European University Institute Florence): Repertoires of migration governance in Southeast Asia and South America. (joint with Politics dept.)

30th October - Dr. Simon Turner (University of Copenhagen): From Anxious Hopes to Blocked Futures: The Changing Emotions of Crisis Among Burundian Refugees in Kigali. (joint with Africa Centre)

6th November – Dr. Caterina Mazzilli (University of Sussex): 'I thought in Brighton we had gone over racism a long time ago': Unpacking mainstream narratives of racism in a 'tolerant' town.

13th November - Dr. Reinhard Schweitzer (University of Vienna): 'Voluntariness' in the management of migrant irregularity.

20th November - SCMR/JEMS Full Day Migration Conference: Confirmed Speakers: Prof Rhacel Parrenas (USC); Dr Renee Luthra (Essex); Dr Rahsaan Maxwell (Chapel Hill, North Carolina); Prof Willem Schinkel (Erasmus Rotterdam) to be held at Attenborough Centre, University of Sussex.

4th December - Prof. Corinne Squire and Dr. Aura Lounasmaa (University of East London): Supporting forced migrants' pathways in(to) universities.

ALL WELCOME!!

@scmrjems

<https://www.facebook.com/scmrjems>