

Nicola Anderson Past Winners

Year	Winner	Project
2001/02	Krista McKerrell	Gender Research on North-Western Sierra Leone Agrisystems/DFID Community Reintegration.
2001/02	Fatima Abass-Allie, Manou Fernandez, Joan-Ann Allan	Assist with the rehabilitation and reintegration of children affected by civil war.
2001/02	Kirsty Hallett, David Blower, Nicola Hall	Assisting in an orphanage in central China.
2002/03	Vivenie Nirgira and Nicky Palmer	To help set up a youth development project in her home town of Kigali.
2002/03	Hawa Omer	Work as an English teacher with the British-based Sudan Volunteer Programme.
2002/03	Suzie Sands	Working for a small Oxford-based charity called Action for Children in Conflict.
2002/03	Felicity Butler	Working for the VSO Overseas Training Project as a volunteer with a women's NGO called Grupo Venancia.
2003/04	Ivan Constantino and Alice Speller	Project on support groups in Tibetan.
2004/05	Rueben Blackie	Research into fertiliser use in Tanzania.
2005/06	Anna Newell	Research into sexual behaviour and disease statistics among the Maasai.
2005/06	Jake Naish	Football and AIDS education in Zanzibar.
2006/07	Thomas Kingsley	Chef training in the Meghalaya Region of India.
2006/07	Hayley Wilkins	Research into HIV and AIDS awareness in Mbeya, Tanzania.
2007/08	Laura Scattrel	AIDS education in Uganda.
2007/08	Jess Howarth	Vocational skills training in Malawi.
2008/09	Sarah Thorne	Volunteer at a local shop in Bonito, an eco-tourism town in Brazil. Brazil Bonito employs adolescents, each in charge of one field of recycling such as paper-making, for which they receive special training.
2009/10	Charles Witzel	Project on expanding and stabilizing an existing feeding program for children affected by, and living with HIV.
2009/10	Kristina Usaite	Project on benefits and disadvantages of the NGO's for homeless children in urban Rwanda.
2010/11	Nora Khalaf	Information and Communication Technology in Zambia.
2010/11	Stephen Hunt	Communications empowerment and development in Tanzania.
2010/11	Laurin Janes	Microcredit in Bangladesh.
2010/11	Molly Bond	Migrants and refugees in Mexico City.
2011/12	Ceridwen Lewis	Creative projects in Tunisian refugee camps with the NGO Network Dhikra.
2011/12	Aruna Dahal	Project on climate change coping mechanisms of people with disabilities in Bangladesh with ActionAid.
2012/13	Masechaba Mabizela	Working with Refugee Social Services, in Durban, South Africa, in order to better understand the challenges faced by refugees and the efforts of this particular NGO to address them.

2012/13	Andrew Chapman	Working with a health and rights based NGO in Kenya, looking at whether there is a link between poverty and being a MSM (men who have sex with men) man.
2012/13	Jamila Damani	Working with the Chenak Trust in slum communities in Mumbai, with a particular focus on gender and development.
2013/14	Natalee Matsekeza	Researching perspectives, background and barriers to young people's employment opportunities in Harare and Chitungwiza in Zimbabwe, looking at young people taking part in the life skills and employability programme by Restless Development.
2013/14	Can Aniker and Carmen Herranz-Carr	Researching mental illness in Freetown, Sierra Leone, and the efficacy of government and charity-led programmes to mitigate it.
2014/15	Samantha Nieman	Working with the 'Protection and Empowerment of Women and Children Programme' at Village Focus International, an NGO based in Laos.
2014/15	Rafael Dunn	To obtain enough relevant data to support my development thesis of whether the Sumak Kawsay (Quechuan ideology of good living) is really at the forefront of influencing policy making in Ecuador, and if so, how long can it continue with external and internal pressure potentially endangering its presence.
2014/15	Ana Galtung	To collect data on peace organisations and cooperatives working within Israel and by Israelis (and Palestinians).
2015/16	Bibi Letts, Hannah Watts	Podcast episode on a sex worker organisation in Maharashtra State, India.
2015/16	Christopher Campbell	Research on Michael Manley's time as leader of Jamaica and the myth that surrounds him.
2016/17	Lora Cracknell, Amber Lawes	To assess the multi-faceted ways in which underwear can aid women's health, empowerment, and protect against sexual violence in Kenya.
2016/17	Georgia Austin	To analyse geographical representations on the shaping of unequal education systems formed through race relations in Rio de Janeiro.
2017/18	Nalishuwa Ikachana	Research that affirms the linkage between the introduction of different Art forms to a community and the stimulation of its socio-economic development in Ihwa, South Korea.
2017/18	Anouch Rajabien	To better understand the Tajik mentality. More specifically, the ways in which Tajik culture is embodied within society and the individual.
2018/19	Heidi Eggleton	To research women's access to higher education in Kilifi, Kenya: enablers and barriers.
2018/19	Isobel Bevir	Working in a small textile business called AMMA in Nuwara Eliya, the highlands of Sri Lanka. To observe the workings behind running a small social enterprise, and learn what it means to be a young woman in Sri Lanka, with the challenges and empowerment of running a business.
2019/20	Yeram In	International schools and the effects of global imperialism of education curricula.

2019/20	Rania van den Ouweland	originally on Refugees and music: the Dream orchestra in Gothenberg. Changed to orchestra in Brighton in the light of the pandemic - extended to Summer 2021.
2020/21	Rachel Holland	Walked part of the Camino de Santiago (an ancient pilgrim route across the North of Spain) - about 570km in total, as she undertook research on the economic infrastructures that uphold pilgrim tourism.
2020/21	Zelie Guisset	Cycled from Brussels to Uppsala as a low-carbon travel to her exchange University.