

DGN Mobile Phones

Mobile phones can be disposed of via a number of different Charity Organisations e.g. Oxfam and British Red Cross. Remember to remove your SIM Card, but if possible hand in the charger, battery and any accessories along with the phone. The University recycles phones through Great Ormond Street Hospital. Send your phone in the internal post to the Health, Safety & Environment Office for recycling.