

Grade 4: Professional Support

Role Description

COMMUNICATION

a) Oral Communication

The role holder frequently receives, understands and conveys straightforward information in a clear and accurate manner. Example: responding to a range of straightforward queries from students and/or staff.

The role holder receives, understands and conveys information which needs careful explanation or interpretation to help others understand, taking into account what to communicate and how best to convey the information to others. Example: explaining a policy or procedure to those who are unfamiliar with it, or explaining course requirements and options to students.

b) Written Communication

The role holder frequently receives, understands and conveys straightforward information in a clear and accurate manner. Example: responding to straightforward enquiries by e-mail, or sending out standard information, or issuing a standard letter.

The role holder receives, understands and conveys information which needs careful explanation or interpretation to help others understand, taking into account what to communicate and how best to convey the information to others. Example: Compiling an agenda, or writing up minutes from meetings, or drafting a factual report.

TEAM WORK AND MOTIVATION

The role holder is required to participate in and deliver their contribution to a team.

The role holder is required to be supportive and encouraging of others in the team and help to build co-operation by setting an example and showing a flexible approach to delivering team results. They would also contribute to building team morale as an active participant in the team. Example: offering proactive support to colleagues, or participating in discussions about the organisation of workloads within the team.

LIAISON AND NETWORKING

The role holder is required to carry out day to day liaison using existing procedures. The purpose of this is to pass on information promptly. They would keep people informed to ensure co-ordination of effort and that work is done effectively. Example: liaising with staff in other areas of the University in order to complete set tasks.

SERVICE DELIVERY

The role holder is required to deal with internal or external contacts who ask for service or require information. They would create a positive image of the institution by being responsive and prompt in responding to requests and referring the user to the right person if necessary. Contact is usually initiated by the customer and typically involves tasks with set standards or procedures. Example: providing a mainly reactive service to support students and members of University staff.

DECISION MAKING PROCESSES AND OUTCOMES

The role holder is required to take independent decisions which would impact on the immediate area of the role holder's work. Example: making decisions about when to order stationery, or deciding on dates for a meeting.

The role holder is required to be party to some collaborative decisions and work with others to reach an optimal conclusion. The decision would impact on the immediate area of the role holder's work. Example: deciding to adapt local procedures with the rest of the work team, or working together to co-ordinate important meetings.

The role holder is required to provide advice or input to contribute to the decision making of others. The decision would impact on the immediate area of the role holder's work. Example: advising managers on how a policy should be implemented locally, or providing a range of information to help determine course viability.

PLANNING AND ORGANISING RESOURCES

The role holder is required to plan, prioritise and organise their own work or resources to achieve agreed objectives. Example: deciding when and how to respond to queries in order to provide an efficient service.

Grade 4: Professional Support

INITIATIVE AND PROBLEM SOLVING

The role holder is required to solve day to day problems as they arise and choose between a number of options which have clear consequences. They would follow guidelines or refer to what has been done before and recognise when a problem should be referred to others. Example: dealing with a supplier who is complaining about an outstanding invoice, or dealing with problems occurring whilst organising meetings, booking rooms or making travel arrangements.

A further important requirement of the role to use initiative and creativity to resolve problems where the optimal solution may not be immediately apparent but has to be assessed by a process of reasoning, weighing up the pros and cons of different approaches. They would identify and assess practical options and break the problem down in component parts. Example: dealing with unusual cases that do not fit neatly into established process/procedure, or resolving problems with accounts.

ANALYSIS AND RESEARCH

The role holder is required to analyse data or information using predetermined procedures and gathering the information from sources. They would work accurately to complete the task precisely as specified. Example: running a web report and passing the information on for others to action, or collating data, statistics or information for others to interpret.

SENSORY AND PHYSICAL DEMANDS

The role holder is required to complete tasks which either would require either a minimum of instruction or light, if any, physical effort. Example: using standard office equipment.

WORK ENVIRONMENT

The role holder is required to work in an environment which is relatively stable and has little impact on the role holder or the way in which work is completed. Example: working in a stable office environment.

PASTORAL CARE AND WELFARE

The role holder is required to show sensitivity to those who may need help or, in extreme cases, are showing signs of obvious distress. They would initiate the appropriate action by involving relevant people. Example: showing sensitivity to staff and students.

TEACHING AND LEARNING SUPPORT

The role holder is required to introduce students or others who are new to the area to standard information or procedures. The role holder does this by providing standard information or delivering teaching or training. Example: giving tours to new students, or explaining standard procedures to students or other staff.

KNOWLEDGE AND EXPERIENCE

The role holder is required to have sufficient knowledge or expertise to work on day to day issues in their own area without direct or continuous reference to others. Example: sound knowledge of procedures or facilities, or knowledge of standard IT packages.
