

New Security Challenges Speaker Series

The Sussex Centre for International Security and Department of International Relations invite you to attend the New Security Challenges Speaker Series, which brings to Sussex University academic experts and practitioners in the field of international security in order to share their insights into the complexities of contemporary international relations. Lectures take place between 6 and 7:30 pm on Falmer Campus, University of Sussex. Autumn dates below. For further details contact: scis@sussex.ac.uk.

Date	Venue	Speaker	Position	Lecture Title
29 Jan 2013	Jubilee -144	James Bevan	Director, Conflict Armament Research	Rethinking arms transfers in Africa: Enhancing monitoring and policy responses
5 Feb 2013 6.30pm	Chowen Lecture Theatre BSMS	Professor Stefan Elbe	Director, Centre for Global Health Policy and Professor of International Relations, University of Sussex	Professorial lecture: Contagion: Disease, security and the politics of fear
9 Apr 2013	Jubilee -144	Kathryn Bomberger	Director, International Commission on Missing Persons (ICMP)	Accounting for the missing: the role of the ICMP in assisting countries following armed conflict

