

International Relations
Research in Progress Seminar Series
Spring 2010
Mondays - 3-5 pm - Arts C233

- 11 Jan Deep Datta-Ray, University of Sussex
The making of modern Indian diplomacy: a critique of Eurocentrism
Discussant: Louiza Odysseos
- 18 Jan Ronnie Lipschutz, UC Santa Cruz
21st Century Liberalism and the Fusing of Public and Private Discussant: Kees van der Pijl
- 25 Jan Martin Shaw, University of Sussex
International systems of genocide? A historical-sociological perspective, from 20th century Europe to the 21st century world
Discussant: Zdenek Kavan
- 1 Feb Ben Selwyn, University of Sussex
Trotsky, Gershenkron and the Political Economy of Late Capitalist Development
Discussant: Justin Rosenberg
- 8 Feb Alex Colás, Birkbeck College
Marxism and Geopolitics
Discussant: Benno Teschke
- 15 Feb Andrei Gómez Suárez, University of Sussex
Geopolitics and Genocide: a Critical Account of the Genocide of the Union Patriótica in Colombia (1985-2010).
Discussant: Nigel Eltringham
- 22 Feb Seung-Wook Baek, Chungang University, Seoul.
From De-linking to Re-linking: the Late Developmentalist Illusion and the Haunted Legacy of Socialism in China
Discussant: Mick Dunford
- 1 Mar John Hobson, University of Sheffield
Eurocentric Foundations of IR Theory
Discussant: Kamran Matin
- 8 Mar Shane Brighton, University of Sussex
Clausewitz and the canon: towards a political theory of fighting
Discussant: Tarik Kochi
- 15 Mar Chris May, Lancaster University
The Rule of Law: its Rhetoric and Meaning in Global Politics
Discussant: Maïa Pal