

Justice and Violence Research Centre Interdisciplinary Seminar Series

Spring Term 2013

Wednesdays 4-6 pm, A 71

Week 1, January 23rd: Karl Hanson, IUKB, Sion, Switzerland

“Children’s Rights as Instruments for Creating Crime-Free and Violence-Free Societies: What is the Price to Pay?”

Organized jointly with the Centre for Rights, Responsibilities and the Law

Week 3, February 6th: Jonathan Newman, University of Sussex

“Impunity and Coffee Farming in Columbia: Framing the Relationship between Economy and Violence”

Week 5, February 20th: Laurence Burgorgue-Larsen, University of Paris-Sorbonne

“The dynamic interpretation of the European Convention of Human Rights”

Week 6, February 27th: Mark Leopold, University of Sussex

“Idi Amin and the World’s First Truth Commission”

Week 9, March 20th: Mick Finlay, Anglia Ruskin University

“Denunciation of ‘Moderates’ in Political Discourse: Examples from Al-Qaeda-Supporting Group”