

Interdisciplinary Seminar Series
Rights, Justice, Violence and War

Autumn Term 2005

Wednesdays at 3:00 pm in Russell 24

Please Note

The seminar in Week 4 is preceded by a meeting of the Centre for the Study of Rights, Justice, Violence and War at 2.00 pm.

Week 2: 12th October 2005

William Twining (Law, University College London)
Human Rights: Southern Voices

Week 4: 26th October 2005

Neil Stammers (Politics, Sussex)
Human Rights and the Paradox of Institutionalisation

Week 4's seminar will be preceded by a meeting of the Centre for the Study of Rights, Justice, Violence and War at 2.00 pm

Week 6: 9th November 2005

Robert Fine (Sociology, University of Warwick)
Cosmopolitanism and Humanitarian Intervention

Week 08: 23rd November 2005

Anna Grear (Law, Oxford Brookes)
Human Rights? Human Bodies? Some Reflections on Corporate Human Rights Distortion, the Legal Subject, Embodiment and Human Rights Theory

Interdisciplinary Seminar Series Rights, Justice, Violence and War

Spring Term 2006

Wednesdays at 3:00 pm in Russell 24

Convenor: Marie-Benedicte Dembour (Sussex Law School)

Week 2: 18th January

Martin Shaw (International Relations, University of Sussex)

The Concept of Genocide

Week 4: 1st February

Kathryn Tomlinson (Anthropology, University of Sussex)

Indigenous Land Rights, Corporations and the State: Reflections on the Venezuelan power line conflict and its aftermath

Week 4's seminar will be preceded by a meeting of the Centre for the Study of Rights, Justice, Violence and War at 2:00 pm

Week 6: 15th February

Roger O'Keefe (Law, University of Cambridge)

The Protection of Cultural Property in Armed Conflict

Week 8: 1st March

Tobias Kelly (Anthropology, University of Edinburgh)

Some Notes Towards an Understanding of the Second Palestinian Intifada, or the Attractions of Accountancy