

Interdisciplinary Seminar Series Justice and Violence

Autumn Term 2006

Wednesdays at 3:00 pm in A 71

Convenor: Marie-Bénédicte Dembour (Sussex Law School)

Week 2: 11 October

Obrad Savic (Philosophy, University of Leeds)
Memory of War Crimes: Can Victims Speak?

Week 4: 25 October

Conor Gearty (Centre for the Study of Human Rights, LSE)
Rethinking Civil Liberties in an Age of Counter-Terrorism and Human Rights

Week 4's seminar will be preceded by a meeting of the Centre for the Study of Justice and Violence at 2:00 pm

Week 6: 8 November

Kate Nash (Sociology, Goldsmiths College)
*Mediated International Human Rights in the National Public Sphere:
The Pinochet Case*

Week 8: 22 November

Mark Leopold (Anthropology, University of Sussex)
How Oil Companies Think (About Human Rights for Example): The Case of Sudan