The results of the 2009 National Student Survey have been published and the Politics Department here at Sussex was thrilled to find our final year students gave us an overall satisfaction rating – question 22 if you're interested in the detail! – of 96%. That, as you can see in the table below, put us in joint third position in the UK.

Obviously, we're aiming to be Number One next year, so there's no way we'll be resting on our laurels. There's always room for improvement, and we'll be drilling down into the detail of the survey as a whole to find out what we can do even better. Still, it's nice to know that, overall, we're obviously doing something right!
