

CENTRE FOR SOCIAL WORK INNOVATION AND RESEARCH

Practitioner Research Symposium

Wednesday 26 April / 9.30am-3.30pm

Gallery Room, Conference Centre, Bramber House, University of Sussex

An opportunity for practitioners and academics to consider research methods and methodology for practice research

---

Coffee served from 9.30am

10.00am: Welcome from Professor Gillian Ruch, Head of the Department of Social Work and Social Care, University of Sussex

10.10-10.50am: Practice Research and Research Relationships: What can we learn from the Nordic experience?

Ilse Julkenen, University of Helsinki

10.50-11.30am: My Doctoral Research and the Voice-centred Relational Method of Listening to Social Workers

Helen Evans, Doctorate in Social Work, University of Sussex

11.30- 11.50am: REFRESHMENT BREAK

11.50am-1pm: Examples of Research Undertaken by Local Practice Educators

1-2pm: LUNCH

2-3pm: What Works in Social Work and How Do We Know: Making sense of research methods for day to day practice

(presentation and interactive session)

Barry Luckock, Senior Lecturer, University of Sussex

---

To reserve your place, contact Jane.Shepard@sussex.ac.uk

US
UNIVERSITY
OF SUSSEX

SCRC
South Coast
Regional Centre for Social Work Education