Post Title: Lecturer in Leadership & Innovation Management

School/department: University of Sussex Business School/ Department of Management

Hours: Full time

Requests for flexible working options will be considered (subject to business need).

Contract: permanent

Reference: 20242

Salary: starting at £44,414 to £52,841 per annum, pro rata if part time

Placed on: 02 May 2023 May 2023

Closing date: 29 May 2023 Applications must be received by midnight of the closing date.

Expected start date: September 2023, or as soon as possible thereafter.

The Department of Management is recruiting a full-time Lecturer to strengthen our research culture and teaching portfolio in the general area of Leadership and Innovation Management. We encourage applicants with quantitative research interests and expertise that focus on managing innovation, change, and promoting resilience in the workplace. Any relevant, professional accreditations (e.g., from the BPS or CIPD) are desirable but not essential.

The successful candidate will be a research active academic who can demonstrate an ability to publish in journals at the quality level of ABS 3, 4, and 4*; and their research should show capacity to impact policy and practice outside of academia. Furthermore, the successful candidate will demonstrate an ability to generate external research funding.

We will select an academic who enjoys teaching and undertaking administrative duties in a dynamic, multidisciplinary environment. While we encourage joint research collaborations, as seen in our ESRC Digit Centre, the successful candidate will show progress in developing their own research and teaching capacities (in line with the School's ambitions); and they can expect to enjoy a full-range of support in furthering those aims.

Informal enquiries may be made to the Head of the Department of Management, Prof Frank Bond (F.Bond@sussex.ac.uk).

For full details and how to apply see our vacancies page

The University of Sussex values the diversity of its staff and students, and we welcome applicants from all backgrounds.

Responsible to: Head of Department of Management/Dean of the University of Sussex Business School

Key contacts: Students, other members of Faculty within the School and University, School Officers, academics in the field in other institutions.

Role Description Lecturer 8(B) is a career-grade teaching and research position. Post-holders will be expected to take full responsibility for the design, management, and delivery of their own teaching, be able to demonstrate an established research portfolio, and a growing reputation in their field of study. They will also be expected to provide support and guidance to less experienced members of staff.

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTABILITIES

1. To design and deliver high-quality teaching programmes that are attractive to students.
2. To engage in individual and collaborative research activity resulting in high-quality publications to be submitted to the REF at acceptable levels of volume and academic excellence, and to obtain research funding and/or knowledge exchange income as appropriate to the discipline.
3. To contribute fully to the School and University by playing a significant role in working groups, committees, and other School and University activities.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Teaching & Student Support

- 1.1 Engage in the planning, delivery, and assessment of innovative high-quality undergraduate and postgraduate teaching, while liaising with the appropriate course and module convenors.
- 1.2 Identify, design, develop, and manage new curriculum proposals that are attractive to students.
- 1.3 Develop high-quality, inclusive, teaching materials, and approaches, while taking responsibility for skilfully implementing them, in accordance with the appropriate learning objectives.
- 1.4 Ensure that teaching strategies and materials remain up-to-date and relevant, for example, by incorporating leading-edge subject-knowledge and technological advances in their teaching.
- 1.5 Set, mark, and assess coursework, and examinations; select appropriate assessment instruments and assessment criteria, and provide constructive and comprehensive feedback to students.
- 1.6 Undertake continuous professional development to sustain and enhance appropriate, pedagogical skills in their relevant subject area(s).
- 1.7 Undertake and appropriately supervise undergraduate, taught- and research-postgraduate students, appropriately facilitating the success of their projects.
- 1.8 Contribute to the accreditation of courses and quality-control processes.
- 1.9 Undertake and complete administrative duties required in the professional delivery of teaching.
- 1.10 Undertake academic advising duties and, where appropriate, provide front-line support for sensitive issues, making referrals to further services, as required.
- 1.11 Adopt an approachable and accessible stance towards students, for example, by offering office hours, informal advice, etc.

2. Research, Scholarship & Enterprise

- 2.1 Contribute to School research strategies, aims, and ambitions.
- 2.2 Develop research objectives and proposals for one's own and joint research.
- 2.3 Conduct research projects individually and in collaboration with others.
- 2.4 Assess, interpret, and evaluate outcomes of research, and develop ideas for their application.
- 2.5 Produce high-quality research outputs that have impact in the field, for publication in monographs or recognised high-quality journals, or performance/exhibition, as appropriate, and contribute to the School's REF submission at acceptable levels of volume and academic excellence.
- 2.6 Lead small research projects and/or identified parts of a larger project, including supervising the work of others and managing or monitoring a research budget, if appropriate.
- 2.7 Make presentations at conferences and identify ways to disseminate research outputs informally via the internet, social media, and other forms of public engagement.
- 2.8 Identify sources of funding and secure or contribute to the process of securing bids.
- 2.9 Identify and secure opportunities for enterprise activities, knowledge exchange income, and consultancy.
- 2.10 Actively cultivate internal, national, and international contacts, in order to, for example, identify sources of funding, secure student placements, and build relationships for current and future activities.
- 2.11 Supervise doctoral students as part of a supervision team.
- 2.12 Contribute to any relevant professional bodies or recognised events.
- 2.13 Continually update knowledge and understanding in one's field or specialism and engage in continuous professional development.
- 2.14 Conduct risk assessments and take responsibility for the health and safety of oneself and others, as appropriate.

3. Contribution to School & University

- 3.1 Attend and contribute to School meetings.
- 3.2 Engage in activities beyond day-to-day teaching duties, for example Admissions Days.
- 3.3 Assist with undergraduate and postgraduate recruitment.
- 3.4 Play a key role in School or University working groups or committees, as required.

- 3.5 Advise and provide support to less experienced colleagues.
- 3.6 Undertake additional administrative duties, as required by the Head of Department or Dean.

INDICATIVE PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

- A record of development of new modules/groups of modules, course, or significant components of schemes of study or CPD courses.
- Proven and sustained track record of successful teaching at the levels appropriate for the post.
- A high standard of teaching performance as judged by standard evaluation methods.
- Evidence of using feedback information from a range of sources to improve the student experience.
- Evidence of using knowledge arising from research and scholarship to enhance teaching and curriculum development.
- Evidence of engagement in advising students and proactively responding to student problems.
- Regular published output of original research at international level (refereed journal papers, monographs, book chapters, textbooks).
- Other evidence of original research contributions to the field, such as through invited conference contributions, membership of editorial panels etc.
- Evidence of successful postgraduate masters and doctoral research supervision i.e., to completion.
- Sustained success in obtaining competitively awarded research grants and contracts, and knowledge exchange income.
- Involvement in the creation, transfer, and use of the results of research through a range of knowledge exchange activities.
- Success in transferring research results to commercial, professional, public sector or other practical use.
- Evidence of contributions to a relevant national professional body or recognized event.

4. Person Specification
