The Department of Accounting and Finance is looking to recruit a full-time faculty member at the Professorial level in the area of Corporate Governance and Financial Management.

Candidates must be able to demonstrate a record of producing world-leading research. The Department values ‘quality over quantity’ and you should have at least two papers published in 4-rated CABS journals since 1st January 2014.

We are looking for an individual with an exciting research agenda that either complements or adds to the interests of our current faculty. The Finance Group has two existing research groups, Business Finance (BF) and Quantitative Finance (QF), which focus on topics such as company finance in both public and private companies, venture capital, derivatives, risk management and FinTech. The Accounting Group has existing expertise in the area of accountability, performance management, governance, accounting in public sector and non-governmental organisations (NGOs), accounting in emerging economies, and public-private-NGO partnerships.

The successful candidate will be an engaged academic who enjoys working in a dynamic, multidisciplinary environment and shows enthusiasm for collaborating with colleagues within the department and across disciplines.

Informal enquiries may be made with the Head of Department of Accounting & Finance Prof Radu Tunaru (R.tunaru@sussex.ac.uk) or the Dean of the Business School Prof Steven McGuire (S.Mcguire@sussex.ac.uk).

The University of Sussex is committed to equality of opportunity.

For full details and how to apply see our vacancies page
The University of Sussex values the diversity of its staff and students and we welcome applicants from all backgrounds.

2. Senior leadership and management

The Vice-Chancellor (Professor Adam Tickell) is the senior academic officer and, as Chief Executive, is responsible to the University Council for management of the University. He is supported by an executive group, which includes the Deputy Vice-Chancellor, the three Pro-Vice-Chancellors, the Chief Operating Officer, the Director of Finance and the Director of Human Resources. The Heads of the Schools of Studies at Sussex report to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor.

The Chief Operating Officer heads the Professional Services of the University. In addition, under the University Statutes, the Chief Operating Officer is Secretary to the University Council. The Director of Finance reports to the Vice-Chancellor, the Director of ITS and the Librarian report to the Chief Operating Officer.

3. The School / Division

The University of Sussex Business School is a unique research-focused interdisciplinary school, which takes a strong policy-directed view on business practices while also developing the underlying core disciplines. It includes the Department of Accounting and Finance, the Department of Strategy and Marketing, the Department of Management, the Department of Economics and the Science Policy Research Unit (SPRU).

With such excellent foundations the University of Sussex Business School offers something distinctive and special to the future of business and management research and education in the UK and beyond. It is exceptionally well placed to provide leadership in the development and dissemination of sustainable business and management practice, informed by sound economic logic.

4. The Department of Accounting and Finance

The Department of Accounting and Finance, founded in 2018, currently encompasses over 22 research-active faculty members, plus over 13 teaching fellows. The Department is composed of two subject groups (Accounting and Finance) and a number of cross-disciplinary research groups (please see details at – https://www.sussex.ac.uk/business-school/accounting-finance/research). Successful applicants would be allocated to the appropriate subject group and invited to join (or potentially launch) a research group.

The Department currently hosts three undergraduate and four postgraduate programmes entirely within the department, and several more degree programmes are offered jointly with other Departments in the School and the University. This includes BScs in Accounting and Finance; Finance; Finance and Business, Finance and Technology; and MScs in Banking and Finance; FinTech, Risk and Investment Analysis; International Accounting and Corporate Governance; Accounting and Finance, Management and Finance. Successful candidates will be expected to contribute to our teaching portfolio, as appropriate for their discipline. We have a workload planning model, which protects research time, and is used to allocate teaching fairly across our faculty. The Department attracts students from all over the world, enhancing the cultural dimension of the learning experience. We also have many international links, collaborating with universities around the globe. Sussex is an inclusive, welcoming and truly international University.

2.9 Play a key role in the internal management of the REF assessment exercise.

2.10 Play a lead role in identifying sources of funding and securing bids, both individually and in collaboration with others.

2.11 Play a lead role in identifying and exploring opportunities for enterprise activity, knowledge exchange income and/or consultancy.

2.12 Provide academic leadership and inspiration to those working within own research area, and foster inter-disciplinary team-working.

2.13 Lead and develop internal and external networks to foster collaboration on both an individual level and on behalf of others in the School, share information and ideas, and promote the subject and the University, both nationally and internationally.

2.14 Develop successful links with external contacts such as other educational and research bodies, employers, professional bodies and other providers of funding and research initiatives to foster collaboration and generate income, and to influence the external research and policy agenda.

2.15 Contribute to the enhancement of research quality and thinking in the field by being involved in quality assurance and other external decision-making bodies.

2.16 Act as a leading authority in the field or specialism, developing new knowledge, understanding and innovation in the area.

2.17 Conduct risk assessments and take responsibility for the health and safety of others, if required.

3. Contribution to School & University

3.1 Attend and contribute to School meetings.

3.2 Contribute to the overall management of the School in areas such as budget management and business planning.

3.3 Contribute to School- and University-level strategic planning and development.
3.4 Engage in activities beyond day-to-day teaching duties, for example Admissions Days.

3.5 Assist with undergraduate and postgraduate recruitment.

3.6 Chair School or University committees, and participate in University decision-making and governance.

3.7 Undertake a School directorship role, for example Director of Research.

3.8 Advise and provide support to less experienced colleagues, and conduct Performance and Development Reviews, if required.

3.9 Mentor staff in related or cognate research areas, providing advice on personal and career development plans, and assisting them in identifying and securing career development opportunities.

3.10 Undertake additional administrative duties, as required by the Head of School.
