The University of Sussex is seeking to appoint an enthusiastic, creative and highly motivated Learning Technologist to support the development and delivery of the University's emerging online distance learning (ODL) course provision.

The post holder will evidence relevant experience in the support of technology in a further or higher education context. Demonstrable expertise in learning design, experience in multimedia production and an understanding of emerging developments in the field of learning technology are essential requirements of the post. Understanding user experience (UX) principles and online accessibility guidelines would also be beneficial to ensure all students get the best experience from their learning.

The post holder will possess a degree or equivalent combined with excellent communication and team working skills. Alongside highly developed technical ability, candidates will need to demonstrate a firm understanding of how digital technologies can be used effectively to facilitate learning.

This is an exciting opportunity to join a specialist team committed to educational innovation and delivering a high-quality experience for our students and staff.
