University of Sussex

You could make a difference to future generations

Over the years the University of Sussex has earned a reputation around the world for the excellence of its teaching and research, for its innovative interdisciplinary curriculum, for its enthusiastic internationalism and for the enriching student experience it offers.

And we have always attracted individuals who value creativity and challenge. Our graduates make major contributions in many fields all round the world, from the arts and media, politics, industry and business to public service and academia.

But in a time of significant change within higher education the University cannot stand still. It has to build on its firm foundations to continue to be a dynamic and exciting place to study in the 21st century.

How your legacy can help

Thanks to the generosity of alumni, staff and friends the University has been able to grow into one of the UK's leading research and teaching institutions. Legacies are vital to help us continue to shape the future of Sussex and to ensure that this remarkable institution can develop and flourish in the years to come.

A gift in your will can live on in perpetuity, making a real difference to the lives of new generations of Sussex students. Whether your gift is large or small, it is an enduring way to honour and support the University that has made an impact on your life and on the lives of many others, both in the UK and around the world.

Please let us know if you intend to remember Sussex in your will

If you have already decided to include Sussex in your will, please let us know. It really does help us to have an indication of future support of this kind. And if you have not yet made a will, then you may wish to consider taking this important step for the future.

Whether you would like more information about including Sussex in your will or would like to discuss a possible legacy in strictest confidence, please tick the appropriate box(es) on the reply form overleaf.

Thank you

“ I've decided to leave a legacy to Sussex because I feel its work is life enhancing. I shall be happy knowing that my bequest will help another older disabled student to enjoy the pleasures of research. ”
