

Centre for World Environmental History

University of Sussex

Workshop and Festschrift Launch

On

Environmental histories of India and the Indian Ocean world

Speakers

Chair: Prof Vinita Damodaran
Director, Centre for World Environmental History

Prof Alan Lester (Pro-VC, Sussex): Introduction

Dr. Sangeeta Dasgupta, Jawaharlal Nehru University, India
(Asa Briggs visiting fellow, CWEH and Associate Professor, JNU) .Co-author of the book
"The Politics of Belonging in India: Becoming Adivasi"
Topic – A journey with the Oraons: SC Roy's Anthropology

Dr. Anna Winterbottom (British Academy Post-doctoral Fellow, CWEH)
Topic: 'A Case of Quiet Globalisation: The Spread of Neem (Azadirachta indica)'

3.30 pm- 4:00 pm: Tea

Dr. Sahara Ahmed, (Assistant Professor of history Rabindra Bharati University, India)
Topic- "Designing Scientific Mining: Evolution to Implementation in Bengal, c.1860s-1970s"

Dr. Alex Aisher, University of Sussex, UK (CWEH and Sussex)
Topic – 'Conservation, symbolism and Imagination: Human- Nature interactions in the Global South' Conservation and Society, vol. 14, no 4, 2016 : the making of the festschrift in honour of Brian Morris

Prof Brian Morris, (Goldsmiths-University of London)
Emeritus Professor of Anthropology & author of "Anthropology of the Self: The Individual in Cultural Perspective" among many notable publications

Followed by drinks

Date: 13th June 2017
Time: 2-6 p.m.
Venue: Arts A 71,
University of Sussex,
Brighton

For Further enquiries please write to S.Nath@sussex.ac.uk

CWEH

US
University of Sussex

