

CENTRE FOR INNOVATION AND RESEARCH IN CHILDHOOD AND YOUTH

Ethics in Early Years Education and Childhood/Youth Research Masterclass

Wednesday 2 May, 1-3pm
Room G22, Jubilee

Dr Alison Fox

Senior Lecturer in Education, The Open University

A workshop for the discussion of contemporary ethical issues in research led by Dr Alison Fox who is involved in revising BERA ethical guidelines and has produced a framework to support comprehensive ethical appraisal of studies.

Join us to learn more. If you have an ethical issue to share - which can be captured in 50 words and used as a focus for discussion - please submit it in advance when you register.

Vignettes produced by the workshop will be shared on the CIRCY website as a response to the BERA guidance revisions and to form the basis for future publications. Your consent to share any vignettes produced for these purposes will be negotiated during the workshop.
