

Asia Centre

2020 Spring
seminar
series

Wednesday 13:00-14:30 JUB-143

Jan 29 K.W. Hassan

Contested Sovereignty and the State of Exception: persistent resistance in Kashmir

Central University of Kashmir

Feb 5 Yi Wang

Concurrent floods and droughts in the catchment of River Jing as reconstructed from historical archives collected in the Southern Chinese Loess Plateau

University of Sussex

Feb 12 Pamela Kembe

Changing Perspectives: Archiving Contemporary Art From Asia
Independent Curator and Researcher on contemporary art from Asia and its diasporas

Feb 26 Hermann Kreutzmann

Passages to Hunza — From caravan-raiding to China-Pakistan Economic Corridor
Freie Universitaet Berlin, Germany

Mar 3 Phd workshop

(Tuesday) C333, C114, GSRC

Mar 11 Mahmood Kooria

Mobile Kins, Immobile Kinds? A Connected History of Matrilineal Muslims in the Oceanic Littoral

Ashok University, India ;
Leiden University, the Netherlands

Mar 18 Jiazhi Fengjiang

Doing Philanthropy as work: The emergence of grassroots philanthropy in China

London School of Economics and Political Science

Apr 22 Aeron O'Connor

Being Dushanbegi: Soviet urbanites tracing ancient roots

University College London

Apr 29 Publishing in Asian Studies:

Trends and Opportunities

Sussex Faculty in conversation with David Avital, Editorial Director, I.B.

Tauris/Bloomsbury, Asian Studies, Middle East Studies and Politics and International Relations

All welcome

