2. A Higher Research Degree may be awarded only to candidates who are deemed by Senate, on the recommendation of one of its authorised sub-committees, to have made distinguished contributions to the advancement of learning.
3. A student may be admitted to a Higher Research Degree if at least nine years have passed since their admission to a Bachelor's degree, or eight years since their admission to a Master's degree, or four years since their admission to the degree of Doctor of Philosophy.
4. The following shall be eligible to make application for a Higher Research Degree:

5. An application for a Higher Research Degree must be based, either wholly or to a substantial extent, on original published work carried out by the candidate. 6. The work or works submitted for the degree must not have been submitted for a Higher Research Degree in any other University, and a declaration to this effect must be submitted by the candidate along with their application.
7. An application for a Higher Research Degree may be submitted at any time. Applications must be made in writing to the Chief Operating Officer, and must include a list of the works on which the candidate bases their application.

10. Before making their report, the examiners may enter into discussions with the candidate about the work submitted.
11. After considering the report from the examiners, Senate or one of its authorised sub-committees shall recommend to Senate which degree, if any, shall be awarded to the candidate.
12. One copy of the work or works submitted by a successful candidate shall be retained in the University Library and will become the property of the University.
