

Governing urban growing space for community resilience: how have legal frameworks regulating access and management shaped experiences and perceived capacities during the COVID-19 pandemic?

Dr Bonnie Holligan and Dr Helena Howe, School of Law, Politics and Sociology

PROJECT OUTLINE

- Phase 1: Mapping legal/governance models and key sites in Brighton and construction of database (Sussex HEIF COVID Response Fund).
- Phase 2
 - collect evidence on how legal and governance structures have affected experiences and perceived resilience-related capacities during the pandemic.
 - translate findings into legal and policy insights.
- Holistic approach to political/social/ecological challenges (Brexit, COVID, climate/biodiversity crises).
- Local Partners: BHFP, Sustain, BHCC.
