You can listen to Korean studies as well as learn Korean, can learn Korean through PNU language institute which have students from 13 countries every year, 200-300 students takes classes here.
Walk along Gwangan Beach, one of the city’s most popular summer destinations because of the many foreigner-friendly restaurants and nightclubs located right next to the beach with spectacular views of the Gwangan Bridge. From there, it is just a short walk to the world’s largest entertainment center, Centum City, known for its ultra-modern aesthetic, and home to Shinsegae, the world’s largest shopping center, the Busan Cinema Center (home to BIFF and a headquarters for Korea’s world-renowned animation industry), as well as the location of a memorial museum to Korea’s tragic history.

Take a stroll along Songdo’s pristine beach on the way to catching the new cable car ride to experience the panoramic view of Korea’s newest tourist attraction. The transparent floor of every cable car offers a breathtaking glimpse of the ocean below. Visit the National Maritime Museum in western Busan and learn about the city’s incredible relationship with the sea. See Jagalchi, one of the largest seafood markets in Korea.

To fully appreciate Busan’s multifaceted history, a cable car trip up Gaunjeong Mountain to Dongnue Eupseong Fortress is a requirement. The fortress was used to help repel the Japanese invasions of Korea during the 1590s, and is one of Korea’s ‘national treasures.’ At the base of the mountain, in the Dongnue area near PNU, is a burgeoning well-being industry devoted to the latest health, fitness, and beauty trends, Korean-style.
