Industrial action
Next week, industrial action is planned to take place on Thursday 9 February and Friday 10 February. We ask colleagues to complete an industrial action declaration form to confirm any strike days taken.

You can choose when to declare but all deductions must have been made by the May payroll. The next payroll cut-off date is Friday 10 February.

Check your virus protection

Following a recent cyber security incident, all staff are required to check their virus protection. Other improvements to protect our cyber security will be introduced soon, so please look out for updates.

Cost of living
As part of our cost of living support to staff, we've commissioned some financial awareness webinars to help support colleagues during this continued period of financial stress. Book now for:

Budgeting and keeping track
Tuesday 7 February 11:00 until 12:00

Credit, Borrowing and Debt
Thursday 9 February 11:30 until 12:30

To help you protect yourself and others, staff are welcome to purchase Covid-19 Lateral Flow Tests and then reclaim the cost from the University through expenses.

Read the latest updates about the cost of living support available to our students.
Today's (3 February) Rights & Anti-Colonial Justice book talk covers the Black Atlantic Abolitionist Movement. Taking place in Arts C333 from 15:00-17:00, the event will feature José Lingna Nafafé from the University of Bristol.

The Black at Sussex: Journeys in Music event on Friday 17 February will centre around music that is politically conscious, uplifting, and connects people and discourses, as well as coalitions across continents and generations. Free with pre-booked ticket | 18:30 | Mandela Hall.
During 2022, as part of the Digital Holocaust Memory Project colleagues in the Sussex Weidenfeld Institute of Jewish Studies helped co-create recommendations for digital interventions in Holocaust memory and education.

LGBT+ History Month is celebrated across the UK every February. We’re launching an ‘LGBT+ Stories at Sussex’ project later this month, and flying the Pride flag over Sussex House in February. Find out how Sussex will be marking the month, and what support is available for staff and students.
