The University of Sussex values the diversity of its staff and students and we welcome applicants from all backgrounds.
2. Senior leadership and management

The Vice-Chancellor (Professor Adam Tickell) is the senior academic officer and, as Chief Executive, is responsible to the University Council for management of the University. He is supported by an executive group, which includes the Deputy Vice-Chancellor, the three Pro-Vice-Chancellors, the Chief Operating Officer, the Director of Finance and the Director of Human Resources. The Heads of the Schools of Studies at Sussex report to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor.

The Chief Operating Officer heads the Professional Services of the University. In addition, under the University Statutes, the Chief Operating Officer is Secretary to the University Council. The Director of Finance reports to the Vice-Chancellor, the Director of ITS and the Librarian report to the Chief Operating Officer.

3. The School / Division

The University of Sussex Business School is a unique research-focused interdisciplinary school, which takes a strong policy-directed view on business practices while also developing the underlying core disciplines. It includes the Department of Accounting and Finance, the Department of Strategy and Marketing, the Department of Management, the Department of Economics and the Science Policy Research Unit (SPRU).

With such excellent foundations the University of Sussex Business School offers something distinctive and special to the future of business and management research and education in the UK and beyond. It is exceptionally well placed to provide leadership in the development and dissemination of sustainable business and management practice, informed by sound economic logic.

4. The Department of Accounting and Finance

The Department of Accounting and Finance, founded in 2018, currently encompasses over 22 research-active faculty members, plus over 13 teaching fellows. The Department is composed of two subject groups (Accounting and Finance) and a number of cross-disciplinary research groups (please see details at – https://www.sussex.ac.uk/business-school/accounting-finance/research). Successful applicants would be allocated to the appropriate subject group and invited to join (or potentially launch) a research group.

The Department currently hosts three undergraduate and three postgraduate programmes entirely within the department, and several more degree programmes are offered jointly with other Departments in the School and the University. This includes BScs in Accounting and Finance; Finance; Finance and Business; and MScs in Banking and Finance; FinTech, Risk and Investment Analysis; Management and Finance. Two new degrees (BSc Finance and Technology and MSc Accounting and Finance) have been introduced in 2019/2020. Successful candidates will be expected to contribute to our teaching portfolio. The Department attracts students from all over the world, enhancing the cultural dimension of the learning experience. We also have many international links, collaborating with universities around the globe. Sussex is an inclusive, welcoming and truly international University.
