- liaising with internal and external colleagues to ensure the smooth running of events on and off-campus

The successful candidate should be highly motivated and be able to work well both in a team environment and independently. They should possess excellent IT, organisation and communication skills. They will also need to be well-organised, with a proven ability to manage varied responsibilities.

Please note that this post is subject to an Enhanced DBS check.

The University of Sussex values the diversity of its staff and students and we welcome applicants from all backgrounds.
2. The School / Division

The Widening Participation Team is part of the Student Recruitment, Admissions and International Development and is based in Essex House in the heart of the campus. We are proud of our commitment to fair access and widening participation at the University of Sussex. We recognise that not everyone has the same opportunities or same start in life and we aim to address some of these inequalities through our projects and outreach work. We strongly believe in empowering people to make the most of their potential regardless of their background or life circumstances and seek to deliver a program of activities and support that enables the people we work with, make the best most informed choices in their educational journey and future life.

The work of a Widening Participation Assistant significantly supports the strategic direction of the University of Sussex by ensuring that all projects and events we run with young people are delivered to the highest standard.

We wish to transform our campus into one that is experienced as inclusive to all communities. We aim to be a place that celebrates diversity and provides equal access and opportunities. We are looking for someone that believes in these values. The person that connects potential students to our programs and our community.

What our staff say about working in the Widening Participation Team:

"It’s a really varied job which means it never gets boring. We have a lot of autonomy on how we run events in managing your own time as well as having the camaraderie of working in a lovely supportive team", Sarah, Widening Participation Assistant

"The Sussex WP Team is a really great place to work. We’ve got a really committed group of people who care about making an impact for the young people on our programmes", Paul, Partnership Manager

The University of Sussex values the diversity of its staff and students and we welcome applicants from all backgrounds. As a widening participation team, we especially welcome applicants from those groups of people that are underrepresented in higher education.

The Widening Participation Team are funded to work with prospective students from groups that are currently underrepresented in Higher Education. For this reason, if you identify with any of the groups outlined in the list below, we would like to strongly encourage you to apply:

- Students who are the first in their family to go to University.
- Students from black and ethnic minority backgrounds
- Students from low-income households
- Disabled students (those in receipt of disabled students’ allowance (DSA) and those who have declared a disability but are not in receipt of DSA)
- Students from military families
- Students estranged from their families.
- Care leavers
- Young Carers
- Students from Gypsy, Roma and Traveller communities
- Refugees and Asylum Seekers
- Mature students

If you would like to discuss the role before you apply please contact Paul Wiggins P.Wiggins@sussex.ac.uk
