Eyetracking Report (33%) – 1,000 words:

Students are required to submit a report on a different topic from the original, in the same format as the original. More information is available on the Canvas module site.

MATLAB Report (34%) – 1,000 words:

Students are required to submit a report on a different topic from the original, in the same format as the original. More information is available on the Canvas module site.

ERP Report (33%) – 1,000 words:

Students are required to submit a report on a different topic from the original, in the same format as the original. More information is available on the Canvas module site.