7th AFRICAN POPULAR CULTURES WORKSHOP

East African Literary Cultures: from Writivism to Kintu and beyond

Tuesday 10th April, 2018

Fulton 103

14.00-15.00 – Screening of a Sussex-sponsored documentary on the pan-African literary initiative Writivism followed by a Q & A session with the directorial team.

15.00-16.00 – East African Literary Cultures round table featuring John Masterson (Sussex), Kate Wallis (Exeter), Henry Brefo (Birmingham) and Niwagaba Roland Byagaba (Writivism).

- Refreshment break -

Fulton G15

17.00-19.00 – Jennifer Makumbi in conversation about her award-winning debut novel Kintu, with a book reading, Q & A session and concluding discussion.

19.00-21.00 – Reception in Dhabha cafe.

Sponsored by: Writivism, School of English, University of Sussex, SAC Centre for Creative and Critical Thought, University of Sussex

Image Copyright (C) Fanny Schertzer