

AMERICAN STUDIES

THURSDAY 15 FEBRUARY 4-6 P.M.

Kerri Pimblott (Manchester)
The Religious Dynamics of the Black Freedom Movement: From Black Power to #BlackLivesMatter
A 108 (in co-operation with History)

THURSDAY 22 FEBRUARY 4-6 P.M.

David Jünger (Sussex)
Legacies of the Holocaust. American Jewry, the Civil Rights Movement and Rabbi Joachim Prinz (1902-1988)
A 108 (in co-operation with History)

TUESDAY 27 FEBRUARY 4-6 P.M.

Sarah Snyder (American University, Washington D.C.),
From Selma to Moscow: How Human Rights Activists Transformed U.S. Foreign Policy in the 1960s
Fulton 113

THURSDAY 8 MARCH
4-6 P.M.

Ira Katznelson
(Columbia and Cambridge)
On Popular Sovereignty: The People and the State in Early America
A 108 (in co-operation with the Centre for Intellectual History)

TUESDAY 20 MARCH 5-7 P.M.

Eileen Myles (Poet and former presidential candidate)
Reading from Myles' new novel Afterglow and poetry performance
Jubilee 118

WEDNESDAY 11 APRIL 5-7 P.M.

Tim Gallagher (Sky News) &
Adam Vaughan (The Guardian)
Reporting Climate Change: America and the World
Jubilee 144

TUESDAY 1 MAY 4-6 P.M.

Branka Arsić (Columbia)
Dust Archive: Melville's Poetics of Matter
Fulton 113

SPRING
2018

