

Sussex Anthropology

Department Seminar Spring Term 2020

These are Public Seminars. Anybody is welcome.

All sessions take place on TUESDAY 3-5pm in Arts C333, except March 3rd in Global Studies Resource Centre

04-Feb	Lori Allen SOAS	Investigating Liberals in Palestine: A Historical Anthropology of International Law
11-Feb	Maya Mayblin University of Edinburgh	Libidinous politics: desire and the cultivation of power among Brazilian Catholic priests-turned-politicians.
18-Feb	Monica Heintz Université Paris, Nanterre	Is immoral behaviour acceptable in times of crisis?
25-Feb	Radhika Gupta Leiden University	Consuming and Curating War on the Kargil Borderland in India
03-Mar	Constance Smith University of Manchester	Nairobi in the making: landscape, time and urban belonging
10-Mar	Narmala Halstead University of Sussex	Visible like a 'post-emergent' state: oil-rush, poverty and new migration
17-Mar	Jon Schubert Brunel/Sussex	Disrupted Dreams of Development: Efficiency and Crisis in the Angolan Port of Lobito
24-Mar	Agathe Mora University of Sussex	From Earth to Paper: Property Claims and the Materiality of Loss in Post-War Kosovo

We normally have drinks in IDS bar following the seminar, and then dinner with the speaker in either Brighton or Lewes. Please do feel free to join us for drinks, and if you wish to join us for dinner, please contact one of the convenors: Demet Dinler (D.Dinler@sussex.ac.uk), Jon Mitchell (J.P.Mitchell@sussex.ac.uk), Filippo Osella (F.Osella@sussex.ac.uk)