

CIE Research Cafe Series: Autumn 2022

Zoom link: <https://universityofsussex.zoom.us/j/96341509660>

This autumn term, the CIE Research Café seminar series hosts four speakers whose work explores education under crisis in four different country contexts: the continuing aftermath of pandemic globally; arson in Kenyan schools as a last resort response to poor quality and violence in secondary school; occupation of land and school in Latin America; the inequities of Early Childhood in Lebanon.

Date	Venue	Presenter	Title
Wednesday 29 Sept / 12-1.30pm	Education Teaching Lab 19, Essex House	Dr Sara Humphreys Visiting Research Fellow, University of Sussex	Covid, Catch-up and the Digital Divide
Wednesday 12 Oct / 12-1.30pm	Education Teaching Lab 19, Essex House	Dr Elizabeth Cooper School for International Studies, Simon Fraser University, Burnaby, Canada	Burning Ambition: Education, arson, and learning justice in Kenya
Thursday 24 Nov / 2-3.30pm	tbc	Dr Rebecca Tarlau Associate Professor, Pennsylvania State (Penn State) University, Pennsylvania, USA	Occupying Schools, Occupying Land
Wednesday 30 Nov / 12-1.30pm	Room 101, Ashdown House	Professor Eva Lloyd Professor of Early Childhood, School of Education and Communities, University of East London	Researching Lebanese Early Childhood Education in a Perfect Storm

