

International Network for Hate Studies Inaugural Conference
Understanding Hate Crime: Research, Policy and Practice

Conference Programme

Thursday 8th May 2014 (Fulton Building)

09.00 - 09.45 Registration/coffee

09.45 - 10.00 Welcome by Dr Mark Walters and Jennifer Scheppe (Directors of the INHS) (LTA)

Plenary Session 1 (LTA)

Hate Crime: A Global Perspective

Chair: Dr Mark Walters, University of Sussex, UK

Speakers:

10.00 – 10.10 Prof Paul Iganski (Lancaster University)

10.10 – 10.20 Joanna Perry (Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights)

10.20 – 10.30 Albin Dearing (European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA))

10.45 - 12.15 Work Stream 1 – Seminar papers and group discussions

Session 1A (FULT 101): Defining hate crime: legal and criminological approaches

Chair: Prof Paul Iganski, Lancaster University, UK

“Hate Crime Concepts and their Moral Foundations” Dr David Brax, Center for European Research, Gothenburg University, Sweden.

“Victimological and legal perspectives on hate crime in Sweden” Dr Görel Granström, Umea University, Sweden.

“Hate Speech Is Not Hate Crime. Why?” Dr John Shuford, Institute for Hate Studies, Gonzaga University, USA.

“The antisocial behaviour/hate crime nexus” Dr Vicky Heap and Dr Marian Duggan, Sheffield Hallam University, UK.

Session 1B (FULT 103): Alternative approaches to addressing the causes and consequences of hate crime

Chair: Dr Nathan Hall, University of Portsmouth, UK

“The Benefits of Restorative Justice in Tackling Hate Crime” Elena Noel, Empowering People for Excellence, UK.

“Restorative Policing and Hate Crime” Dr Mark Walters, University of Sussex, UK.

“Hate Crimes among prisoners: Towards an integrated theoretical framework and effective prevention strategies” Konstantinos Panagos, University of Athens, Greece.

“Alternative mechanisms for engaging with 'on-field' racism in sport” Prof Simon Gardiner, Leeds Metropolitan University, UK.

Session 1C (FULT 202): Responding to disablist hate crime: developments in policy and practice in the UK

Chair: Jon Garland, University of Surrey, UK.

“A critical evaluation of police service provision for victims of learning disability hate crime” Jemma Tyson, University of Portsmouth, UK.

“The Challenge of Investigating Disability Hate Crime in Nottinghamshire” Dr Loretta Trickett, Nottingham Trent University, UK.

“Evaluating a Disability Hate Crime Awareness Campaign: Implications for increasing ethical responses towards individuals with learning disabilities” Victoria Pattinson, University of Sussex, UK.

Session 1D (FULT 203): Hate crime and religion: new and old paradigms

Chair: Dr Neil Chakraborti, University of Leicester, UK.

“Hate Crimes Against London’s Muslim Communities” Susan Paterson, Metropolitan Police Service, UK.

“The Changing Language of Hate” Caryl Bryant and Dr Erica Howard, Middlesex University, UK.

“The relationship between faith communities and policing” Laura Knight, University of Leicester, UK.

“ ‘Reciprocal’ Radicalization between Right Wing and Islamic Extremism” Colin Jacobson, University of Cambridge, UK.

12.15 - 13.15 Lunch (Dine Central, Bramber House)

Plenary Session 2 (LTA)

Responding to Hate Crime: The Case for Connecting Policy and Research

Chair: Jennifer Scheppe, University of Limerick, Ireland

Speakers:

13.15 – 14.00 Dr Neil Chakraborti (University of Leicester, UK) and Jon Garland (University of Surrey, UK)

14.00 – 15.10 Work Stream 2 – Problem Solving Workshops and discussion panels

Session 2A (FULT 101): WORKSHOP: How are Community and Statutory Organisations working together to tackle Hate Crime?
Facilitator: Elena Noel, Empowering People for Excellence, UK.
Session 2B (FULT 103): PANEL DISCUSSION: Combating and Responding to Hate Crime: Developing Legal Strategies
Chair: Prof Barbara Perry, University of Ontario Institute of Technology, Canada. Discussants: Prof Juan A. Nel, Department of Psychology, University of South Africa, SA; Iole Matthews, Director, The Independent Projects Trust, SA; Jennifer Schweppe, University of Limerick, Ireland.
Session 2C (FULT 202): PANEL DISCUSSION: Monitoring hate crime in the absence of national collection systems: challenges and progress
Chair: Joanna Perry, OSCE. Discussants: Robin Sclafani, CEJI - A Jewish Contribution to an Inclusive Europe, Brussels, Belgium; Daphne Kapetanaki, UNHCR, Greece; Eleni Takou, The Racist Violence Recording Network, Greece.
Session 2D (FULT 203): PANEL DISCUSSION: Challenges to researching hate crime: bridging the policy gap
Chair: Dr Marian Duggan, Sheffield Hallam University, UK Discussants: Jon Garland, University of Surrey, UK; Dr Neil Chakraborti, University of Leicester, UK; Stevie-Jade Hardy, University of Leicester, UK; Irene Zempi, University of Leicester, UK; Dr Zoe James, University of Plymouth, UK; Dr Loretta Trickett, Nottingham Trent University, UK.

15.10 - 15.30 Coffee Break (Fulton Social Space)

15.30 - 17.00 Work Stream 3 – Seminar papers and discussion groups

Session 3A (FULT 101): Understanding the direct and indirect impacts of hate crime
Chair: Prof Barbara Perry, University of Ontario Institute of Technology, Canada “Racism by stealth” , Dr Corinne Funnell, University of the West of England, UK. “Understanding the indirect consequences hate crime victimisation: the victim group response” Dr Jennifer Paterson, University of Sussex, UK, and Dr Mark Walters, University of Sussex, UK. “Understanding the impact of Islamophobic victimisation upon veiled Muslim women” Irene Zempi, University of Leicester, UK. “Understanding the impacts of cyber hate crime against LGBT and Muslim People” Harriet Fearn, University of Sussex, UK.
Session 3B (FULT 103): Regulating hate speech?

Chair: Dr Kay Goodall, Stirling University, UK

“Conceptualising disability hate crime and incitement to hatred on the basis of disability” Dr Andreas Dimopoulos, Brunel University, UK.

“How should we legislate against hate speech? Finding an international model?” Viera Striskova, University of Geneva, Switzerland.

Session 3C (FULT 201): International issues in policing and recording hate crime

Chair: Dr Nathan Hall, University of Portsmouth, UK

“Reporting and civic organisation: ENAR Ireland and the iReport.ie system” Dr Lucy Michael, University of Hull, UK.

“The role of the police and LGBT NGOs with reporting of homophobic hate crime” Jasna Magić, University of Ljubljana, Slovenia and Anglia Ruskin University, UK.

“European approaches to hate crime” Michael Whine MBE, Community Security Trust, UK.

Session 3D (FULT 202): Criminalising hate? How, why and who?

Chair: Jennifer Scheppe, University of Limerick, Ireland

“The victims of hate crime and the principle of equality” Chara Bakalis, Oxford Brookes University, UK.

“Defining natural: Do some identities deserve more protection than others?” Piotr Godzisz, University College London, UK and Dr Dorota Pudzianowska, University of Warsaw, Poland.

“Should the European Court of Human Rights recognise the discriminatory nature of violence against Roma?” Jasmina Mačkić, Leiden University, Netherlands.

“The Problematisation of Hate Crime Legislation in Turkey” Bengi Bezirgan, London School of Economics, UK.

17.00 – 17.45 Drinks Reception and Book Launch (Fulton Social Space)

19.15 – 23.00 Conference Dinner at the Hilton Metropole Brighton – speaker Peter Tatchell, international human rights campaigner.

Friday 9th May 2014 (Fulton Building)

09.30 – 09.45 Registration

09.45 – 11.15 Work Stream 4 – Seminar presentations and group discussions

Session 4A (FULT 101): Cyber hate crime : A global phenomenon

Chair: Paul Giannasi, OBE, Ministry of Justice, UK.

“Tackling hate crime in the digital age” Chara Bakalis, Oxford Brookes University, UK.

“A typology of internet hate crime” Prof Joanna Adler and Will Jacks, Middlesex University, UK.

“Online hatred: A mixed method approach” Sarah Rohlfing, University of Portsmouth, UK.

Session 4B (FULT 103): Disablist hate crime: Impacts and experiences

Chair: Dr Loretta Trickett, Nottingham Trent University, UK.

“Disablist Hate Rape: Survivor Recommendations at Policy Intersections” Susie Balderston, Lancaster University, UK.

“Experiencing disability hate crime – what is the impact and what do we need to do to stop it?” Mark Brookes, Quality Auditor, Dimensions, UK and Joanna Perry, ODIHR, Warsaw, Poland.

“I am a nuisance and should never have been born’: Exploring experiences of disability hate crime” Jane Healy, Middlesex University, UK.

Session 4C (FULT 201): Understanding hate crime: Causes and contexts

Chair: Jon Garland, University of Surrey, UK.

“Understanding Patterns in and Between Different Categories of Hate Crime in the North East of England” Dr John Clayton, University of Northumbria, UK, Prof Catherine Donovan and Dr Stephen Macdonald, University of Sunderland, UK.

“The unlawful killing of gay men in the UK since 2006” Dr Simon Harding, Middlesex University, UK.

“Hate crime in Australia: examining the neighbourhood contexts of self-reported victimisation” Kathryn Benier, University of Queensland, Australia.

“When Colour Matters: Policing and Hate Crime” Dr Anders S Wigerfelt and Berit Wigerfelt, Malmö University, Sweden.

11.15 - 11.45 Coffee Break (Fulton Social Space)

Session 5A (FULT 101): WORKSHOP: Tackling learning disability hate crimes

Facilitators: Elena Noel, Empowering People for Excellence, UK, and Richard Walker, Speaking Up Southwark & Co chair of Southwark Hate Crime Network, UK.

Session 5B (FULT 103): PANEL DISCUSSION: Operationalising hate crime: from law enforcement to criminal prosecution

Chair: Dr Zoe James, University of Plymouth.

Discussants: Paul Giannasi, OBE, Ministry of Justice, UK; Dr Nathan Hall, University of Portsmouth, UK; Seamus Taylor, CBE, National University of Ireland Maynooth, Ireland.

Session 5C (FULT 201): WORKSHOP: Research collaboration: Horizon 2020 funding applications

Facilitator: Jennifer Schweppe, University of Limerick, Ireland & Dr Helen Almey, Technology Strategy Board, Horizon 2020, UK.

Closing Presentation (LTA)

Universal Suffering: Intervening Globally

Chair: Dr Mark Walters, University of Sussex, UK

13.00 - 13.30 (LTA)

Speaker:

Prof Barbara Perry (University of Ontario, Institute of Technology, Canada)

13.30 – 15.00 AGM of INHS (INHS BOARD COMMITTEE MEMBERS) (FULT 101)