

Researching Professional Practice

CSWIR is launching a new thinking space.

Researching Professional Practice will provide an opportunity for doctoral researchers, practitioners and academic colleagues from the Departments of Social Work & Social Care and Education to explore the specific and unique dilemmas, challenges and opportunities arising from research conducted in, with and for (but definitely not 'on') professional practice.

First meet:

Monday 28 October, 12.30-2pm, Ground Floor Meeting Room, Essex House.

Come along and see if it's for you!
