

Space To Share

Wednesday 6 November / 12.30-2pm

Ground Floor Meeting Room (behind reception), Essex House

Join us for CTLR's first Space To Share of the academic year

The Centre's focus is on connecting research and practice in educational contexts to promote positive change.

This 'Space To Share' provides an opportunity for anyone affiliated to the centre and/or interested in becoming involved to meet and share areas of research and practice interest over an informal lunch.

We will also spend some time reviewing - and developing - our plans for working together over the course of this year.

Staff, doctoral researchers, MA and UG students are all really welcome so do join us if you can.
