

GEOGRAPHY DEPARTMENT RESEARCH SEMINARS

AUTUMN 2022

Thursdays | Arts C333, University of Sussex, Falmer OR Online |

29 Sep 4-6pm Online	Ruth Wilson Gilmore, City University NY (CUNY)	Abolition Geography Register at https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/abolition-geography-with-ruth-wilson-gilmore-tickets-412794949807
6 Oct 1-2pm Arts C333	Roseanne Steffen and Billie Krish, Sussex alumni	'The rents keep on rising and so will we': reflections on the 2021 Rent Strike at Sussex University
13 Oct 1-2pm Online	David Featherstone, University of Glasgow	Seafarers struggles for equality, working class multiculture and the makings of place in Cardiff and Liverpool
20 Oct 1-2pm Arts C333	Dalia Gebrial, LSE PhD Researcher & Novara Media contributing editor	Algorithmic Expulsions: Platform labour management and the carceral bleed
27 Oct 1-2pm Arts C333	Moushumi Bhowmik, Jadavpur University/The Travelling Archive	'The caged bird sings of things unknown': political prisoners and other stories of incarceration from the subcontinent.
10 Nov 1-2pm Arts C333	Vron Ware, Visiting Professor, LSE	Return of a native: learning from the land
17 Nov 1-2pm Arts C333	Fae Dussart, Sussex	Burdened by intimacy: duty, exploitation, and the Victorian 'domestic sphere'
24 Nov 1-2pm Zoom	Adam Elliott-Cooper, Queen Mary	Bobbies in Babylon: Black resistance to British policing
1 Dec 1-2pm Arts C333	Felix Mantz, Queen Mary	Political ecologies of abolition: land-grabbing, natures, and the state in Tanzania

Convened by Ben Rogaly