
Dislocations

Starting with feet at shoulder width and arms long with either a broomstick or band at hip height, the arms should be raised above the head, and down to the lower back.

