

Dispossession: Indigenous survival, land holding and loss in the midst of settler colonialism

Provisional Programme

Arts C175 (Global Studies Resource Centre)

Each paper has an hour long slot, but the intention is to allow plenty of time for discussion, so please aim to present for no more than half an hour.

Thursday 4th July,

- 10.00 Registration and Tea/Coffee
- 10.30 Welcome and Introduction: Alan Lester and Zoe Laidlaw
- 11.00 Julie Evans & Giordano Nanni: Coranderrk
- 12.00 Patricia Grimshaw and Joanna Cruikshank: Anne Bon and the contradictions of settler humanitarianism
- 1.00 Lunch
- 2.00 Robert Ross: The Kat River Settlement
- 3.00 Fiona Vernal: Farmerfield as Local and Global History
- 4.00 Tea/Coffee
- 4.30 Discussion and Bar
- 6.30 Meet at Falmer railway station to go to Brighton or Lewes for dinner, venue TBC.

Friday 5th July

- 10.00 Angela Wanhalla: Living on the Rivers' Edge: Dispossession at Taieri Native Reserve, New Zealand
- 11.00 Tea/Coffee
- 11.30 Damon Salesa?
- 12.30 Sarah Carter and Adele Perry: Land, Dispossession and Colonialism in Nineteenth Century Western Canada
- 1.30 Lunch

- 2.30 Cecilia Morgan: Site of Dispossession, Site of Persistence: The Haudenosaunee (Six Nations) at the Grand River Territory in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries
- 3.30 Tea/Coffee
- 4.30 Kelli Mosteller: A Face of Brotherhood or a Face of Death
- 5.30 Mark Mcmillan: Comments
- 6.00 Roundup and discussion of book