Named to the 2017 US News & World report top 50 Best Global Universities
Explore the social impacts of entrepreneurship this summer at UC Santa Cruz.

Students can learn about growing a business that positively influences your community by enrolling in the course:

- Social & Creative Entrepreneurship (5 credits)

Students on a J-1 visa may choose to enroll in an additional course - the Field Study Practicum (2 credits) - to gain practical experience through a guided internship experience within the local Santa Cruz community:

- Social & Creative Entrepreneurship + Field Study Practicum (7 credits)
Social and Creative Entrepreneurship  CRWN 92 (5 credits)

- Discover your own business idea
- Examine leadership
- Research community issues
- Develop sustainable business models
- Learn from business and civil leaders

Field Study Practicum  MERR 90S (2 credits)

- Practical application of coursework
- Arrange an internship with a Santa Cruz community organization
- Internship placements in community development, civic engagement, and more.

*Full-time enrollment is required for all international students (F-1 or J-1) attending UCSC Summer Session. During summer, 5 credits is considered a full-time course load.

The Field Study Practicum course is available to international students on J-1 visa only and students’ participation in an internship is subject to ISSS approval for Academic Training. F-1 students are ineligible to participate in the Field Study Practicum course.
