Exceptional Circumstances Intermission Request

Intermission is available in periods of months, and is usually permitted up to a maximum of one year in total (during the period of a student’s doctoral studies) for full-time students and two years in total for part-time students. Further periods of intermission in exceptional circumstances must be approved by the Chair of Doctoral Studies Committee. Periods of Authorised Absence also count towards the maximum number of months’ intermission for which a research student can apply.

Please note, if you are in receipt of a United States Federal Direct Loan, this request may have an impact on your funds. Please seek advice from the Financial Aid Office before proceeding (usfinancialaid@sussex.ac.uk).

If you are in receipt of a Doctoral Loan, please note that the Research Student Administration Office will inform the Student Loan Company of your intermission.

If you intermit on health grounds, you may be required to provide evidence that you are fit to resume your studies when you return from intermission.

Information specific to overseas students who have entered the UK on a Tier 4 visa:

If intermission is required, Tier 4 students should discuss their situation with the University’s International Student Support team at immigration@sussex.ac.uk first. When intermission is approved, the University is obliged to report this to UK Visas & Immigration (UKVI). UKVI will curtail (cancel) the current visa and students should return to their home country and must then apply for a new Tier 4 visa before they resume their studies.

For any period of intermission, as you are no longer studying, your right to work in the UK would cease with effect from the first day your period of intermission, and you should therefore notify any current employer that you will not be permitted to undertake any further work. If you undertake any work for the University of Sussex, the HR Compliance team will be informed of your temporary withdrawal from study.
