

GEOGRAPHY DEPARTMENT RESEARCH SEMINARS

SPRING 2023

26 Jan 1-2pm	Matthew Tillotson	University of Sussex	The Godzilla of Trinity Road: a materiality of mutuality at the Halifax Building Society, 1968-1974	Arts C333
2 Feb 1-2pm	Laura Cleton	UNU-MERIT & Maastricht University	Deporting integrated children? Legitimizing the in/exclusion of illegalized migrant children through intersectional boundary work (co-organised with SCMR)	Arts C333
9 Feb 1-2pm	Ali Ali	University of Sussex	Coercive transformations of space in displacement	Arts C333
16 Feb 1-2pm	Mark Riley	University of Liverpool	The virtual farmer: farmers' use of social media and the (re)presentation of "good farming"	Arts C333
23 Feb 1-2pm	Hannah Schling	University of Glasgow	Logistics of social reproduction: just-in-time labour in a dormitory regime	Arts C333
2 Mar 1-2pm	Alice Corble	University of Sussex	Emplotting the geopolitical "map of learning": locating the University of Sussex and its library in a (post)colonial past and present	Arts C333
9 Mar 4-5pm	Felix Mantz	California State University, San Marcos	Abolition from the South: land grabbing, ecologies, and resistance in Tanzania Register on Eventbrite at bit.ly/3CHRC1c	Online
16 Mar 1-2pm	Adam Elliott-Cooper	Queen Mary, University of London	Bobbies in Babylon: Black resistance to British policing Register on Eventbrite at bit.ly/3kaoNEt	Online
Weds 22 Mar 4-6pm (event tbc)	Aviah Day and Shanice McBean	Birkbeck, University of London and Sisters Uncut	Abolition revolution (co-organised with Centre for Global Political Economy and the International Relations Department)	One Church, Florence Road, Brighton
27 Apr 1-2pm	William Fletcher	University of Manchester	Palynological insights into Holocene palaeoclimate in Morocco	Arts C333

Convened by Ben Rogaly