

'The Historical Sociology of International Theory'

One day workshop, Thursday 13th September 2012, University of Sussex

Programme

11.00-13.00 Session 1

Chair: Beate Jahn

Antonio Cerella (Sussex)

The Cage, the Agent and the End of History: Remarks for an "Unchained" International Historical Sociology

Philip G. Cerny (Rutgers)

Conceptions of Pluralism in International Relations Theory: From State-Centrism to Sociological Complexity

Andrew Davenport (CAIT)

History and Theory in IR Marxism

13.00-14.00 Lunch

14.00-16.00 Session 2

Chair: Kamran Matin

Robbie Shilliam (QMUL)

"Open the Gates Mek We Repatriate": Caribbean Slavery and Hermeneutic Tensions in the Sociology of Knowledge Tradition

Julian Saurin (Middle East Technical University, Northern Cyprus Campus)

An Environmental Sociological Imagination: Arguments for a Historical Environmental Sociology of International Relations.

16.00-16.30 Coffee

16.30-18.00 Roundtable

Beate Jahn (Sussex), Kamran Matin (Sussex), Louiza Odysseos (Sussex), Benno Teschke (Sussex)

Dinner