

You are invited to share a message for International Women in Engineering Day

Need inspiration?

a celebration of a woman engineers - a fellow student, colleague, researcher, a historical or contemporary figure a thank you to anyone who inspires you from outside engineering a message of support from a male ally a wish for the future words of encouragement to girls and young women considering STEM subjects at school or university

This years celebration was suggested by Dr. Ferheen Ayaz, research fellow and School EDI/AS member

The tree will be on display until early July, submissions can be emailed in to eninf-communications@sussex.ac.uk
