

Organisational Development Management Essentials Programme

2020/2021:

215

Managers trained

8.9
(out of 10)

Average course satisfaction

24

Sessions delivered

Really useful and practical information on management versus leadership skills and how we practice these in our every-day management.

BOOK NOW! DATES AVAILABLE FROM 5th OCTOBER 2021 ONWARDS

The Programme

A series of nine 90 minute workshops for staff in academic or professional roles with management responsibility. Workshops include:

- Introduction to Management - Developing Your Management Skills
- How to Delegate Effectively
- Giving Effective Feedback
- Developing Your People Management Skills
- Appraisal Workshop for PS Managers (spring/summer term only)
- Leading and Managing Teams
- Coaching Skills for Managers
- How to Have Difficult Conversations
- Introduction to Managing Change

Visit: <https://www.sussex.ac.uk/organisational-development/leadership-management> to book or contact OD@sussex.ac.uk. Why not invite us along to a team meeting to find out more.

Really enjoyed the discussions - made a huge difference to have lots of attendees joining in and creating a dialogue. Another fantastic managers essentials programme workshop.

Another brilliant course. This series of courses have been perfectly pitched and run extremely well by Sarah. I have learnt so much on how to be a better manager. I have also learnt a lot about myself and why I have felt the way I did in many situations.