

Migration Research Seminars – Spring Term 2008

16th January (week 2)

Rob Berkeley (The Runnymede Trust)

The end of multiculturalism - integration and ethnic diversity

23rd January (week 3)

Elisabeth Ivarsflaten (University of Bergen, Norway)

Party politics and public opinion about immigration in Western Europe

30th January (week 4)

Eva Jespersen or Shahin Yaqub (Unicef Innocenti Research Centre, Florence)

Children and migration; global issue, local concerns

6th February (week 5)

Milena Chimenti (Visiting Research Fellow SCMR and University of Geneva)

Difference and Sensitivity in the Field of Migration and Health. National policies compared within Europe.

13th February (week 6)

Heidi Armbruster (University of Southampton)

Post-war German Immigrants in Namibia: Perceptions of Namibia and the Self

20th February (week 7)

Keith Halfacree (University of Swansea)

International labour migrants in rural areas: implications for counterurbanisation and rural restructuring

27th February (week 8)

Kathy Burrell (De Montfort University)

Geo-political and Material journeys: Post-Socialist Migration from Poland to Britain

5th March (week 9)

Ben Rogaly and Becky Taylor (University of Sussex)

Narratives of Former British Emigrants on 'Race' and Immigration in Contemporary Britain

12th March (week 10)

Caroline Oliver (University of Cambridge)

Retirement Migration: Flirting with Freedom

All Seminars: 17.00-18.30 in C233

All Welcome