

Migration Research Seminars – Spring Term 2009

Week 2 : 21st January - Dallal Stevens ,Warwick School of Law, University of Warwick
'Asylum and the right to health: legal, medical and ethical considerations'

Week 3: 28th January - Mike Collyer , SCMR and Department of Geography
'You can't get there from here: irregular migration, assisted return and the failure of the asylum project'

Week 4: 4th February – John Eade, CRONEM, University of Roehampton.
'Global Flows, Transnationalism and Increasing Ethnic Diversity: Comparing Settled Minorities and Circular Migrants in London'

Week 5: 11th February - Debbie Phillips, Department of Geography, University of Leeds
'Claiming Spaces: Negotiating Housing Welfare and Neighbourliness in Areas of New Migration in Britain'

Week 6: 18th February – Andrea Rossi, Visiting Fellow DRC and Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University.
'The impact of migration on children'

Week 7: 25th February – Catherine Locke, Development Studies, University of East Anglia
'Visiting Marriages and Remote Parenting: Changing Strategies of Rural-Urban Migrants in Vietnam'

Week 8 - 4th March - Allan Williams, Working Lives Research Institute, London Metropolitan University
'International migration, knowledge transfer and innovation: migrant entrepreneurs in the London hospitality sector'

Week 9 : 11th March - Lena Nare , SCMR, University of Sussex
Managing Households, Making Homes - Domestic work migration to Naples

Week 10: 18th March – Thomas Faist, Department of Sociology, University of Bielefeld
'The New 'Social Question' and Transnational Social Security'

All Seminars: 17.00-18.30 in C233
All Welcome