Summary

These Terms and Conditions accompany, and should be read in conjunction with, your offer of a place. These, together with the University regulations, codes and policies and the online prospectus in place at the date of your offer, form your Contract with the University. This creates a framework within which both you and the University operate, supporting you to achieve your academic potential.

Please take the time to read and understand these Terms and Conditions. If you accept your offer of a place, we will assume that you have read and accepted these terms and conditions and agree to comply with them.

In particular, you are asked to note:

- The University has standards of expected behaviour which it requires all students to maintain. Students are expected to conduct themselves at all times in a manner which demonstrates respect for the University, its staff, fellow students and the wider community. Students must observe any codes of conduct which are in place and updated from time to time, as well as adhering to University regulations. If you fail to meet the standards expected the University may take disciplinary action against you and consequences can include termination of this Contract and removal from your Course. Please see https://www.sussex.ac.uk/webteam/gateway/file.php?name=regulation-2.pdf&site=76 and clause 6 for further information.

- The University has high academic standards and you must participate in your Course and meet the academic requirements. If you do not progress sufficiently to remain on your Course, the University may withdraw you from your Course and you will not be entitled to any refund of fees. Please see clause 6 for further details.

- You must complete your Course within the Period of Registration. You are responsible for managing the study of the Modules on Your Course to ensure that you study and complete all the Modules necessary to complete the Course within the Period of Registration.

- The University will use all reasonable endeavours to deliver your course as described in the prospectus and to provide services at the University. Whilst the University will seek to keep course changes to a minimum these may sometimes be necessary, for example if there are unanticipated staff changes or updates to the syllabus. Exceptionally, we might need to cancel a course, for example if there are insufficient students registered to deliver education of sufficient quality for those who have enrolled. Please see clause 11 for further details about course changes.

- Fees are paid on a modular basis and your Offer will set out payment details. You must pay the Module Fee at least 5 days prior to the start of the Module you wish to study. We may withdraw your registration on a Module if you have not enrolled and paid the Module at least 5 days’ prior to commencement. Please see clause 12 for fuller details. Your fees may increase during your studies with us, and you may also have to pay additional costs such as specialist equipment, field trips or bench fees. Charges are made if you have to retake any assessments.

- We have registration requirements for some students and courses, for example all students are subject to a satisfactory criminal records check (clause 9). If you are unable to meet any academic or other requirements for admission, or are dishonest with any information you provide, then your offer of a place will be withdrawn (clauses 6 and 8).

5.1 The University will use all reasonable endeavours to deliver your Course and the services at the University with reasonable care and skill and in accordance with the description in the Prospectus. If there is a change to your Course, Clause 11 of these Terms and Conditions will apply.

5.2 The University shall provide you with access to equipment and/or facilities that are necessary for you to undertake your Course but you are required to provide personal items that you need to study at the University, including a desktop PC or laptop and study materials.

5.3 The University shall explain the academic requirements for your Course to you.

6 Academic and Conduct Obligations

6.1 The University may refuse to offer a place on a Course if it reasonably considers that an applicant will not meet the University’s academic and/or conduct standards.
6.2 If, prior to registration at the University, it comes to the University’s attention that your behaviour or conduct (academic or non-academic) may not comply with our expectation for student conduct, or if the University has safeguarding concerns, the University may suspend your admission. In such circumstances, the University will invite you to provide a statement about the allegations that will be considered by representatives from: the Admissions Team, your proposed academic school and Student Complaints, Conduct & Funding. Collectively they may decide that the University may terminate this Agreement and withdraw your offer, put in place behavioural requirements or restrictions for continued admission or allow unrestricted admission to the University. Their decision is final and is not subject to appeal. Examples of such conduct of concern could include acts or threats to act in a way which threatens the health or safety of any other member of the University, its employees or other students, or threats to do any illegal acts (including but not limited to dealing controlled substances, or causing physical damage to anyone or thing).

6.3 After starting your studies at the University (including prior to completion of your registration at the University) at all times – including social media use - demonstrating respect for the University, its students, staff and our wider community and adhering to the University’s regulations (http://www.sussex.ac.uk/ogs/govdocuments/regulations) together with any codes for student conduct and behaviour in place from time to time. If you do not, the University may take disciplinary action against you under the regulations for student discipline contained in the Supplementary Documents. One of the possible outcomes of disciplinary action is termination of this Contract and removal from your Course. If you are in receipt of a scholarship, in addition to any sanctions taken under our student discipline regulations, the University may review whether your scholarship shall be withdrawn or if conditions shall be applied to your scholarship.

6.4 You must meet the ongoing academic requirements of your Course, including but not limited to: the mandatory passing of Modules, submission of course work and other assignments, completion of examinations and participation in online lectures, seminars, webinars, supervisory meetings and any other such online teaching or research forums provided by the University. If you do not pass Modules as required by Your Course, the University will require you to re-sit assignments or repeat a module of study in accordance with the University’s Examination and Assessment Regulations (charges will apply).

6.5 If, following re-sits or repeats you have not progressed sufficiently to remain on your Course, the University will withdraw you from your Course in accordance with the University’s regulations and you will not be entitled to any refund of fees. You will be given a transcript of your credits, and, if applicable, any intermediate awards received.

Personation – which includes purchasing essays and assessments from essay mills – will usually be considered to be a major misconduct.

6.7 Any concerns about fitness to study will be dealt with in line with the University’s fitness to study policy http://www.sussex.ac.uk/adqe/standards/fitnesstostudy. If you are temporarily withdrawn on health grounds, you must satisfy the Fitness to Study Panel that your health has improved sufficiently to restart your study at the University. Professionally regulated courses also have required conditions and standards. A failure to adhere to these may call into question a student’s fitness to practise and result in a fitness to practise investigation, the outcome of which could include the imposition of conditions, suspension or expulsion from the University.

6.8 If at any point you withdraw from your studies, the University has the right to refuse re-admittance if it reasonably considers that your conduct is likely to fall below the standards expected by the University as set out in the Supplementary Documents. Conduct which is likely to be unacceptable includes, but is not limited to: causing distress, potential distress or harm to members of the University community; actual or potential damage to university property; disruption to the functions and operations of the University; or impeding or interfering with the pursuance of work/study of members of the University community.

7 Course Management

7.1 You will engage and participate in your Course and take personal responsibility for your own learning. This will include attending and taking part in online taught lectures, seminars and/or research; engaging with teaching and support staff; making use of all available resources; and meeting academic requirements (see clause 6).

7.2 If you need to re-sit any assessments/examinations, you must take such re-sits at the next available opportunity (including during any breaks from study you may choose to take) to ensure that you repeat any assessments as closely as possible to the conclusion of the teaching for that Module. If there are extenuating personal circumstances which mean you need to delay a resit, including during a break from study, then you must obtain express permission. If you fail to take any resits within a reasonable period, then the University may assess your suitability to continue on your Course and reserves the right to withdraw you from your Course.

7.3 You are responsible for managing the study of the Modules on Your Course to ensure that you study and complete all the Modules necessary to complete the Course within the Period of Registration. If at any point you have concerns that you will not be able to complete all the Modules on your Course within the Period of Registration you must notify the University at studentsuccess@sussex.ac.uk as soon as possible. If you do not complete the required Modules within the Period of Registration then the University can permanently withdraw you from your Course.

7.4 If the University reasonably considers that you are failing to engage sufficiently with your studies, the University may assess your suitability to continue on your Course. If the University does not consider that there are reasonable prospects that you will complete the Modules for your Course within the Period of Registration, you may be withdrawn from your Course.

8 Services and Equipment

8.1 You must provide at your cost the necessary equipment and services (including internet connection) to undertake your Course of study online. If a Module requires you to use specific software then you must use your best endeavours to install such software on your equipment. The University shall take reasonable steps to assist but will not be under any obligation to provide alternative software.

The University may require you to provide satisfactory evidence that you have met all the requirements to study at the University.

10.3  Your Offer is subject to you satisfying the academic and other requirements for admission. If your Offer is conditional, you will need to satisfy the conditions set out in your Offer (such as obtaining qualifications at a minimum grade) in order to be admitted to the Course. If you have not met the conditions of your Offer before the start of the Course, or provided required evidence, the University reserves the right to withdraw the Offer. For some courses you may need to provide information about your health, or have a satisfactory health check (including providing evidence of immunisations), a satisfactory Academic Technology Approval Scheme check or a satisfactory disclosure and barring service (DBS) check. If this applies the University will notify you of the requirements to be met.

10.4  If you do not provide satisfactory evidence when requested, you are dishonest in the information you provide or you withhold relevant information the University may terminate this Contract and withdraw you from the University or cancel your admission to the University. The University will verify the authenticity of documentation provided.

11.4 Prior to - and no later than the point when you register as a student - the University will require you to disclose any “relevant” unspent criminal convictions. The University’s Criminal Convictions Panel will consider any relevant unspent conviction disclosed to the University. Certain criminal convictions may result in your Offer of a place being withdrawn or conditions being imposed to allow you to study at the University.

11.5 Failure to disclose an unspent criminal conviction may result in your Offer being withdrawn. If you have already registered at the University disciplinary action may be taken and your Contract with the University could be terminated, resulting in removal from your Course.

11.6 If you are convicted of an offence whilst you are studying at the University You must disclose any unspent criminal convictions. The Criminal Convictions Panel will evaluate whether it is appropriate for a student with an unspent criminal conviction to continue to be part of the University. 11.7 Further information on the University’s policy and procedures relating to criminal convictions can be found at www.sussex.ac.uk/criminal-convictions. Processing of your personal data will be carried out in accordance with our data protection policy.

There may be other related costs and expenses for some modules, such as specific software. The University’s policy on additional costs can be found at www.sussex.ac.uk/finance/services/feesandincome/studentaccounts/tuitionfees.

12.2 When you enrol on a Module, you will be required to pay a fee for taking that Module (“Module Fee”). No fees will be due unless and until you enrol on a Module. Your enrolment on a Module creates a new and distinct contract between us (“Module Contract”).

12.3 You must have enrolled on a Module and have paid the Module Fee at least 5 days prior to the commencement of the relevant Module. We may withdraw your registration on a Module if you have not enrolled and paid the Module Fee 5 days before the commencement of the relevant Module.

In order to cancel the Module Contract within the Module Contract Cancellation Period, you should give us written notice of cancellation by contacting us at studentsuccess@sussex.ac.uk stating your name, student/applicant number, Course and reason for cancellation.

12.6 Should you enrol on a Module in error, or you are unable to get access to a Module, you must notify us as soon as possible and in any event within the Module Contract Cancellation Period. We will not be under any obligation to refund you for modules which you enrol on in error if you do not notify us within the Module Contract Cancellation Period.

12.7 After the Module Contract Cancellation Period, you may request a refund of module fees due to exceptional or mitigating circumstances if supported by evidence, for example medical advice in the form of a doctor’s note. You must email any application for a refund after the expiry of the Module Contract Cancellation Period to studentsuccess@sussex.ac.uk and each application will be considered on a case-by-case basis. Any refunds made will be issued in accordance with the University’s Financial Refund or Rebate Policy in force at the time https://student.sussex.ac.uk/money/fees/refunds

12.8 It is your responsibility to ensure that you complete all the Modules for your Course within the Period of Registration and you will not be entitled to any refunds of fees if you fail to do so. If you have to re-sit any examinations or assessments you will incur a reasonable charge for this.

12.9 Module fees will not increase for two years from your initial Course start date, which will be outlined in your Offer. However, your module fees will be subject to change in accordance with clause 12.9.

12.10 After two years from your initial Course start date, Module fees will be subject to an increase of 2.5% in each subsequent year to take account of our increased costs of providing educational services to you and ensure that we are continually improving the educational services we provide to you. These fees will not be subject to any other variation other than those described in this paragraph 12.9.

12.11 If you change course then the fees may be different and you should check the fees for that course if you consider changing course.

12.12 There may be additional costs and expenses for some courses, such as materials for projects. The University’s policy on additional costs can be found at www.sussex.ac.uk/finance/services/feesandincome/studentaccounts/tuitionfees

The University may take legal action to recover any unpaid debt.
12.14 If a sponsor has agreed to pay all or part of your Course fees, you will still be primarily liable for the payment of the Course fees. If your sponsor fails to pay part or all of your Course fees, you must pay any unpaid fees.

12.15 If you withdraw from your studies (either temporarily or permanently), your fees will be amended in line with the University’s financial withdrawal policy http://www.sussex.ac.uk/finance/services/feesandincome/studentaccounts/withdrawals

13 Course changes

13.1 The University will use all reasonable endeavours to deliver your Course as described in the Offer and Prospectus and ensure that any changes to your Course are kept to a minimum. However, circumstances may change and it may be necessary to make minor variations or material changes to your Course or, in exceptional circumstances, to cancel your Course.

13.2 The University may make minor variations to your Course, including (but not limited to) in response to student feedback, updating the syllabus (including in response to academic research), timetabling requirements or alterations due to staff changes (which may mean it is no longer possible to teach a module which was dependent on staff expertise or the content of a module may need to be revised).

13.3 The Prospectus provides an indication of optional modules and the University does not guarantee that optional modules will be available or that students will get their choices or preferred combinations. Whether optional modules run is also dependent upon how many students wish to take up that option. If a module is undersubscribed it may not run; if a module is over-subscribed then priority will be given to those students for whom the module is a core module and any remaining places will be fairly allocated. Optional modules are also subject to timetabling and may be grouped; if so you will choose a set number of optional modules from any particular group.

13.4 The University may need to make material changes to your course (such as a change to course title, the nature of the award or a significantly different course structure, mode of delivery or assessment). Changes may also be needed because of circumstances outside the reasonable control of the University, including (but not limited to) unanticipated staff changes, responses necessary to meet the latest requirements of a commissioning or accrediting body or adherence to advice from the UK government or a regulatory body. How we notify you will depend on the nature of the changes but, in any event, such changes will be recorded as soon as reasonably possible in the updated Course information on our website.

13.4.1 If the University needs to make material changes to your Course before you register at the University we shall let you know as soon as possible. If you reasonably believe that the changes will prejudicially affect you then you may cancel this Contract and withdraw your application without any liability for Course fees (even if the cancellation period has expired).

13.4.2 If the University needs to make material changes to your Course after you have registered then we will make reasonable endeavours to consult with you and will notify you of the changes as soon as possible. The University will take reasonable steps to minimise any adverse effect of the changes. If the University makes material change(s) to your Course for reasons other than circumstances which are outside the University’s reasonable control
13.8 The University will act in accordance with its student protection plan which outlines risks to Courses delivered by the University, and measures in place to mitigate those risks: https://www.sussex.ac.uk/webteam/gateway/file.php?name=student-protection-plan.pdf&site=76

14 Course Cancellation

14.1 In rare circumstances, the University may need to discontinue your Course. Possible reasons for discontinuing your Course include (but are not limited to) loss of professional accreditation for the Course, loss of teaching staff or insufficient students registered on the Course to deliver a satisfactory quality of education.

14.2 If the University cancels your Course prior to you registering at the University, we will notify you as soon as possible and we will use reasonable endeavours to provide a suitable replacement course. If you are unhappy with a replacement course provided, or if the University is unable to provide a suitable replacement course, you may cancel this Contract and withdraw your application without any liability for Course fees (even if the cancellation period has expired).

14.3 If the University cancels your Course after you have registered at the University, we will notify you as soon as possible and we will use reasonable endeavours to transfer you to a suitable replacement course. If you are unhappy with a replacement course provided, or if the University is unable to provide a suitable replacement course, you may cancel this Contract and withdraw from the University without any further liability for Course fees (even if the cancellation period has expired). You will receive a refund of tuition fees paid up to the date of withdrawal.

14.4 If your Course is cancelled and you do not wish to transfer to an alternative course at the University (or none is available) we will use reasonable endeavours to help you find an alternative comparable course with another UK Higher Education provider.

15 Limitation of Liability

15.1 Nothing in this agreement will limit the University’s liability for:

15.1.1 death or personal injury caused through the University’s negligence; or 15.1.2 any fraud or for any sort of other liability which, by law, cannot be limited or excluded.

15.2 The University will not be liable for any injury sustained which was caused by another student or by any person who is not an employee or authorised agent of the University.

15.3 The University will not be liable for any loss or damage to Students’ personal property (including computer equipment and software), including any financial or other
15.4 Neither you, nor the University, will be liable for failure to perform any obligations under this Contract if the failure arises from circumstances that are beyond that party’s reasonable control. In the case of the University, circumstances beyond its reasonable control include (but are not limited to) acts of, or implementation of action required by, local government, the UK government or a regulatory body; closure of part or all of the University for health and safety reasons; power failure; acts of terrorism; industrial action or other similar action by University staff. In the case of a student, circumstances beyond reasonable control may include (but are not limited to) bereavement or significant diagnosed ill health. You should contact the Student Support Centre if you are experiencing problems in your studies and engage with the University, accessing support and taking such steps as are reasonable in the circumstances to minimise any adverse effects and enable you to continue with your studies. Nothing in this clause limits your liability to pay your Course fees.

15.5 The University will take reasonable steps to ensure that, so far as possible in the circumstances, the consequences of a failure to act in accordance with this Contract as a result of circumstances beyond the University’s control are kept to a minimum. Actions which the University may take to minimise any adverse effects include, but are not limited to, alternative forms of teaching delivery and/or location, alternative forms of assessment, substitutions for teaching staff or modifications to the Course content.

15.6 To the fullest extent permitted under the laws of England and Wales, the University excludes liability for any losses suffered by you as a result of circumstances beyond the University’s reasonable control. Subject to clause 15.1 and any restrictions in statute or at common law, the aggregate liability of the University (however arising including (but not limited to) contract and negligence) shall not exceed the total of the Fees paid and due to be paid by you in relation to your Course.

16 Intellectual Property

16.1 You shall own any intellectual property you generate and provide to us during your Course, however by entering into this Contract you grant us an irrevocable non-exclusive licence to use such intellectual property in furtherance of the objectives of the University.

16.2 You must not misuse, misappropriate or infringe any intellectual property which belongs to the University including but not limited to copyright, patents and confidential information.

16.3 The University owns the copyright of all course materials including, but not limited to, lecture notes, presentations, examinations, online materials (including videos, podcasts and webinars), discussion boards, examinations and assessments. You are permitted to use these for your own personal use as part of your study, but these must not be shared with any third parties, including students from other educational institutions. It is strictly prohibited to sell or offer to sell any course materials, including parties who subsequently offer University content for sale on internet sites. Any breach of this clause will result in disciplinary action being taken against you under Regulation 2. The University also reserves the right to seek damages.
16.4 If you cancel a Module Contract, you must not access or use any course materials that you have already downloaded and you must return any such materials to the University within 24 hours of cancellation and delete any copies which you have made.

17 Disabilities

17.1 If you have additional support needs due to a disability, including an autism spectrum condition, dyspraxia, dyslexia or specific learning difficulties, mental health conditions or physical health conditions, you are encouraged to let the University know at the earliest opportunity. The University will seek to support you whenever possible and adjustments can be put in place if appropriate.
