SAC Seminars – Spring term 2017

Wednesday 1 February
‘Ebola and the Pitfalls of State-Building in Liberia’ Robtel Naijai Pailey (Oxford)
1-2.30 pm IDS room 221. Joint with IDS

Wednesday 22 February
‘The role or archival evidence in Interdisciplinary Research’
SungKyu Kim (IDS) Nicola Stylianou (Global Studies), Etienne Joseph (Global Studies). Chair: Caitriona Dowd
1-2.30 pm IDS room 221. Joint with IDS

Monday 6 March
An informal South Africa discussion group is being set up by Merle Lipton & Yusuf Sayed. The first meeting focusses on South Africa’s controversial new health policy, with Dr Hayley McGregor as a speaker: ‘Chronic Lifelong Conditions: Challenges for Health Policy and re-engineering primary health care in South Africa’
1-2.30 pm, room 119 IDS. Joint with the Centre for International Education.
For further information on, or suggestions about, this new discussion group, contact merlelipton@gmail.com

Monday 13th March
Three Wishes to Transform Africa. To be confirmed.
Late afternoon event, organized by the Nigeria Society, USSU and others

Tuesday 28th March
South Africa Discussion Group
The 2nd meeting of South Africa Discussion Group will be held on The Education crisis in South Africa, at 1-2.30 pm in Room 119, Institute of Development Studies (IDS)
Speakers: Yusuf Sayed and Azeem Badroodien
Subject: Recent conflicts & challenges in South Africa’s tertiary education sector.

Yusuf Sayed is Professor of International Education and Development Policy at Sussex University & South Africa Research Chair in Teacher Education at Centre for International Teacher Education in Cape Town. His research is on achieving equity and social justice in and through education. Professor Azeem Badroodien is based at the Centre for International Teacher Education in Cape Town. His research focuses on post-school and teacher education policy in South Africa.
For further information contact merlelipton@gmail.com
Tuesday 28th March
Working won’t make you rich: The Morality of Development & the Eclipse of Labour in Addis Ababa
Marco Di Nunzio (Université Libre, Bruxelles)
3-5pm Global Studies Resource Centre. Joint with Anthropology

Thursday 11th May
South Africa Discussion Group
Ruth Hall (University of Western Cape) & Prof Michael Lipton (Sussex University) will discuss "Is a consensual land reform in South Africa Possible?"
1-2.30 Provisional Room: IDS 119

Other events this term – details still to come

- African conflict in transnational perspective (joint with IDS and SCSR)
- Migrants on the Margins: preliminary discussion of research in Harare and Colombo
- April/May African Popular Cultures Workshop. Biafra 50 years on [with School of English].