

Sussex Africa Centre events – autumn term 2016

EVERYONE WELCOME!

Thursday 29 September, Welcome event.

Award-winning journalist and author Michaela Wrong in conversation with John Masterson

Global Studies Resource Centre Seminar Room, Arts C – 16:00-18:00, Joint with English.

Followed by drinks and nibbles in the Dhaba Café, Arts C - from 18:00

Tuesday 4 October Dr Alice Elliott (Bristol University)

Repeating manhood: Movement and the (un)making of men in emigrant Morocco

15:00-17:00, Arts C333. Joint with Anthropology

Tuesday 18 October Dr Lyndsay McLean-Hilker (Sussex).

The “Empowerment” of Adolescent Girls and Young Women in Kinshasa

15:00 – 17:00 in Arts C 333, Joint with Anthropology

Friday 21 October Prof Paul Lovejoy (York University, Toronto, Canada),

The Economics of the ‘Second Slavery’ in the Jihad States of West Africa

Africa Economic History Network (AEHN), conference keynote

17:45 - 18:45 Bramber House, Conference Centre, 3rd Floor, Terrace Room

The AEHN conference, 21-22 October, has the theme ‘New Approaches to African Economic History: History, Methods and Interdisciplinarity’. SAC members are welcome to attend conference sessions free of charge. Programme details (more than 60 papers) - aehn2016@sussex.ac.uk or:

<http://www.sussex.ac.uk/economics/newsandevents/events/aehn2016> or

Wednesday 2 Nov Creating African Fashion Histories Conference.

9.30-19.30, The Old Courtroom, 118 Church Street | Brighton Museum & Art Gallery

Speakers include Victoria Rovine (author, African Fashion, Global Style), Carol Tulloch (The Birth of Cool: Style Narratives of the African Diaspora), Christopher Richards (curator, Kabas and Couture: Contemporary Ghanaian Fashion), Erica de Greef, Angela Jansen (Moroccan Fashion, Design, Culture and Tradition), Heather Akou (The Politics of Dress in Somali Culture), and others.

Programme details: brightonmuseums.org.uk/cafh

SAC members interested in attending the conference and/or subsequent day workshop on 3 November, please email j.mcgregor@sussex.ac.uk.

Tuesday 8 November Dr Helene Neveu (University College London)

Love, absence and parallel lives in Senegalese transnational families

Tuesday 15:00 – 17:00 in Arts C 333. Joint with Anthropology.

Wednesday 23 November, Dr Robtel Neajai Pailey (Oxford)

Liberia, Ebola and the Pitfalls of State-Building.

13:00-14.30, Institute of Development Studies. Joint with IDS.