Sussex Africa Centre events – autumn term 2018
EVERYONE WELCOME!

Thursday 4 October  Welcome Event: Migrants on the Margins and Urban Governance in Harare, Zimbabwe
Dr Kudzai Chatiza, Development Governance Institute, Harare.
Seminar: Arts C333, 4-6pm
Drinks and nibbles: Arts Building C, Dhaba Cafe from 6pm.

Thursday 11 October  Migration Industries in the Global South
Dr Priya Deshingar, University of Sussex,
4-6pm, Arts C333. Joint with Sussex Centre for Migration Research

Thursday 18 October  Between Rootedness and Rootlessness: Emigration and (Dual) Citizenship in Liberia,
Dr Robtel Pailey, University of Oxford
4-6pm, Arts C333. Joint with Sussex Centre for Migration Research

Thursday 25 October  Hybridity or struggle? Legitimate Representation and Everyday Politics in Zambia
Dr Alastair Fraser, SOAS
4-6pm, Arts C333

Visit 3 new displays at Brighton Museum and meet the curators: ‘Township Journeys’, by Tshepo Skwambane (South African textiles/beadwork); ‘Aso-Oke: a celebration of style’ by Edith Ojo (garments from Nigeria); plus an exhibition of African studio photography.
Followed by drinks. Venue: Brighton Museum, 6-8pm.

Thursday 8 November  Pan Africanism: A History. Seminar and book launch
Prof Hakim Adi, University of Chichester
4-6pm, Arts C333

Thursday 15 November  Girls Have Powers: Creative Child-led Research Combining Ethnographic and Arts-led Methodologies,
Dr Katie McQuaid, University of Leeds
4-6pm, C333

Monday 19 November  The Future of Famine. Sussex Centre for Conflict and Security Research Annual Lecture
Prof Alex De Waal, Tufts University, Executive Director, World Peace Foundation
5.40-7pm, Chowen Lecture Theatre.

Thursday 22 November  Crisis Frames: Visibility, Ambiguity and Violence in Burundi 2015-7
Dr Andrea Purdekova, University of Bath.
4-6pm, Arts C333

Thursday 29 November  Zimbabwe’s 2018 Elections: Process and Outcomes
Dr Miles Tendi, University of Oxford.
4-6pm C333.

Thursday 6 December  Citizenship in Africa: PhD research in progress seminar. Details to come!
4-6pm C333.